FOREWORD

It is written in Ephesians 4:11-13 “And he gave some apostles and some prophets and some evangelists and some pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the fullness of Christ.”

It is therefore, my good pleasure to introduce to the Church, for the Church, but not necessarily by the Church a message that I hope and pray might accomplish the objectives of Eph 4:11-13. When all is said and done, that is the sole purpose of publishing these Letters. That we might come into the unity of the faith culminating into the knowledge of the full measure of Christ. A partial measure will yield only a partial knowledge of Him and the perfect man we can become will not be manifested without such a full gospel.

So it is to the glory of God that such truths should be made known in their fullest at this most appropriate time. I have done nothing but to believe by faith in His Word as His Word is written. However, it is as His Word is written that unfortunately many in the churches have great difficulty accepting. But may it be the will of God that these Letters aid us in overcoming this problem.

I do claim that these Letters are written under inspiration and as such become a vision and an experience. The scripture commands us to try the spirit. Therefore, I request of the churches to challenge me in this regard. These Letters are not above nor meant to replace the Bible as so many others have done by producing books and claiming them to be equal to the Bible. However, I do claim that they are firmly built upon biblical examination and as a result are supported by scripture.

I do apologize for having such a lengthy title but try as I did, but I could find no shorter solution. Every word of it is critical to grasping the full reality of what is facing not only the churches but the world. As such a few comments are in order. First, the word “detailing” means a very thorough and complete study of the reality of prophecy considering both the Old and the New Testament, Ancient Israel and the New Covenant Church. I have also detailed certain events which supports fulfillment of prophecy related to Modern Israel and to the churches such as “end times...last days...etc.” as seen in scripture.

My introductory comments I deem critical as they aid in bridging the Letters together. Though each Letter is separate and distinct and can stand alone on it’s own merit, the central theme of Christ return is ever present. Also each Letter is dated when it was written which was prior to many of the events that are now occurring. This boldness, the Lord required of me in order to establish credibility working in the office of a prophet.

It is peculiar that the number seven gave me a sense of completion though I had anticipated doing eight. Seven is often known as God’s number and it means completion. Therefore, let us think of this book as a series of seven different frames or pictures as concluding evidence concerning the nearness of Christ return for His Church. I proclaim that I have been moved by the Holy Spirit to write what I have come to know for the benefit of others. So I appeal to one and to all to consider these words placed in my heart by the Spirit of Truth. No man knows the Day and I do not intend on giving a Day! But let us remember, does not our Lord say Watch! Will not He reward them that look for Him? Are we not commanded to Hope!! And so it is written in JOHN 3:3 “And every man that has this hope in Him purifieth himself, even as our Lord is pure.” Let us begin.

MY DEAR FRIEND

May what I have to say be acceptable to your heart. The world has taken a dramatic and eerie change within the last year. Current world politics, economics, agriculture, banking and even our religious beliefs are being challenged and ultimately affected like never before. Also, racial and ethnic strife appears ready to explode in the USA like it already has in many other places on this planet. I truly want you and your family to consider something that may seem crazy but if given an ear is very possible and is very true nonetheless.

The question we must ask ourselves is: If there is a God, how and when will He reveal himself? There is a modern phenomenon that “as a nation” have not existed for almost 2000 years. That nation was once again restored in 1948...and has continuously been in the news for all the world to see. It is as if this nation is a thorn in the Earth’s side. That nation is none other than Israel!!! Think about it...think about it...and then think about it.

Without knowing your beliefs...consider Israel and it’s unique link to the Bible as a sign of the “True God” and as a sign of the Second Coming of Christ. Yes...all true prophecy glorify the return of the Messiah at the appointed time. Dates are not important...but the signs are and the Bible makes clear what to watch for. Therefore, I have watched and do know the signs...and so I forewarn. Knowing that you may not know the many Promises that shall be for those who believeth on his name... Let it be said that Eternal Life is one of them and Israel’s Restoration after so long of a dispersion is the very evidence of God’s Eternal existence. Therefore my brethren...Rejoice...but understand that God must deal with those who are in unbelief and there are many, such is the price of free will.

Attached is information to support what has been revealed to me. Please give it at least One Good Reading. It is intended to give you Insight and Clarity concerning our generation. Many events in the world today verify the Word of God...it proves that God is not working mysteriously or in secret. It is our lack of study combined with an unbelieving nature that blinds us in the fulfillment of prophecy. I pray that my efforts be of a benefit to you and those around you. The Spirit of Truth tells me “that if it is given to me to know then by Faith it is my responsibility to reveal.”

And So I Shall AMEN!

MAY THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH SPEAK? ST. JOHN 16:13

THE NECESSITY OF THE RETURN OF GOD'S CHOSEN PEOPLE

And so begins...a dialogue...perspective of unusual revelation concerning prophecy.ancient history's impact on current events...man's efforts for utopia, and his constant failures in the process. Yet he never gives up trying, from one social revolution to another...utopia seems to always be just one step away, waiting for this or that technological discovery to find it. To make it possible...without God as His creator... an endless and useless attempt by Man to do without what he needs most. When things fall apart man is smart enough to ask, "What went wrong?", but never patient enough to wait on God for the answer. It is no doubt that man is driven by a force; an opposing, unyielding, desperate and angry force. A force which God has identified for us and to us. This deadly force realizes that he cannot get Man to believe in him as it's ruler, so it causes man to doubt the true God by deceit. The Art of Deception. And enough men always take the bait.

My study of Prophecy brings this deception to it's fullest realization when I look into the history of the Jew. the ancient Hebrews...the current Israelites. God's Chosen People. Without question...their history is the most glorious and yet painful of any people I know. I have witnessed these people, but only and only because they have been ordained by God to challenge this evil force and though they have failed God in some respects, they have aided in saving Mankind. The troubled birth of Isaac by Abraham and Sarah symbolizes this resistance to earthly affairs. God touched the Seed of Isaac and commanded it to forever be a resistance and to be a sign post...and to be an evidence of the true creator...and to reflect the limitations of the Law Principle...and Save Man.

While we can see evidence of God through the constant beauty of nature...the witness of conscience...and the Bible. The study of the Jew...enduring constant persecution on a level unsurpassed and in many cases unfathomable will reveal even to the casual observer, this force at it's most potent form. God has used the Jew to show the world that there is an opposing force who is none other than Satan. Trying desperately to outdo GOD by exterminating the Jews.

They are a people whose presence have always been treated with some disdain. In ancient history they appear as the only centerpiece of the Living God. Through their astounding belief in one God in antiquity, we see the gods of other nations such as created by the Romans, Greeks, Babylon, etc., as man's imagination dictated by Satan. These other gods were very real to the men of those days. They fought and died for them and even sacrificed their women and daughters in hopes of pleasing these imaginary beings. They never really existed. Unfortunately, they are to this day given more emphasis in schools and institutions of higher learning than the true living God is today. All children will learn about Zeus, under the guise of mythology which in many cases has the audacity to include Jehovah.

It is extremely important to note that after the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, even the Romans who themselves aided in his crucifixion, instituted Christianity in their kingdom as their religion. God had effectively shown man that He was...what He is...and that He shall forever be. The conclusion to all this is that this revelation to man about this most Supreme Being came at the expense of the Jew.

From Abraham to Jesus, a period of 1700 years, a masterful plan by God to save man for a better day, if you will. Through prophecy, I saw that none of this was by accident. For Jesus himself was prophesied by Moses almost a thousand years before his First Coming. And so was the 30 pieces of silver he was sold for...and so was the potter's grave...and so was his clothes cast in the lot. and so was his persecutor, his own people, the Jew. No surprise whatsoever to God himself...for by design the Jew has shown us the Kingdom of GOD and that design is blueprinted by God, not orchestrated by the whimsicalness of Man.

For what would have happened if Jesus had lived to the ripe old age of 100, died of natural causes, and then been buried and then resurrected? I shall tell you...He would have went unnoticed. As great as the resurrection of Lazarus from the dead, such an act pales in comparison to the crucifixion of Jesus and his resurrection from a Roman guarded grave and blocked by a huge stone slab with the world watching. Satan's determination to prevent such a resurrection aided God's purpose in revealing to man a spiritual world beyond what we see, taste, smell, and hear.

Every bit of it was prophesied. But where did the Jews as a people go wrong? Most of us are aware that Jesus was predicted in two forms...one as a Suffering Messiah and the other as a Reigning Glorious King. The Jews, "as a nation," could never figure out this double reference. Anyone in their human mind, Jew or Gentile, would want to be saved by a man of force, not a suffering messiah. It would not be nearly as confusing if they took the prophets literal and accepted both and not prefer one over the other. This is a classic case of the Human viewpoint vs. GOD's viewpoint.

Conclusion...the Jews were only thinking of saving themselves for God's kingdom...God was planning to save all mankind, Jew and Gentile alike. Let's realize that "as a nation," any group of people would have made the same mistake after waiting almost a thousand years to be saved.

As prophesied, the city of Jerusalem and it's holy temple and it's Jewish citizen were officially destroyed and dispersed respectively 70 A.D. A worldwide dispersion...a worldwide persecution and yet a worldwide survival rate. I thought Africans had it bad with colonization and economic slavery. I nearly cried for them after studying their history and recognizing their persecutor. But on May 14, 1948, the Nation of Israel was restored and it is prophesied that never shall they lose it.

Journey with me through this phenomenal occurrence. These people had no land they could call their own from 70 A.D. to 1948, a total of 1,878 years. Think about that...what the world was then compared to now. They were a minority everywhere they went...they had different languages, cultures, and environments to deal with. They never lost their "God sent" identity and they not only came back as a nation but got the very same most important strategically placed real estate called the Promised Land.

Once I marveled this and accepted it as a literal biblical fact, I lost my identity as an African and saw myself as a Gentile...like days of old. For I knew God's Chosen People were back and based on prophecy, it is no accident. During my study on biblical prophecy, I find that God's will occurs just as it is written but unfortunately, due to the valley of time, man's impatience rationalizes him to treat it symbolically. This can create a most serious error in interpreting God's word.

To show just how literal God can be, listen to how He ordained the Nation of Israel on November 2, 1917. On that date the Balfour Declaration was issued. It certified British government support for the "establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people." It was also supported by the United States. At that time the area was occupied by the Turks and their ally, the Germans who might resist such an act. British General Allenby was concerned "should the shell the city and risk damaging the holy cities?" He made it a matter of prayer and hit upon an unconventional idea. He had pilots drop leaflets on the city to urge peaceful surrender. The occupants evacuated the city on December 9, 1917 without one shot being fired. The Turks had occupied the area for over 400 years and offered no resistance whatsoever. As prophesied by Isaiah 2500 years ago, "Like birds hovering overhead, the Lord Almighty will shield Jerusalem, He will shield and deliver it, He will pass over it and will rescue it" (ISAIAH 31:5).

So like hovering birds, the little biplanes were used by the Lord to defend Jerusalem. It was in fact protected, rescued, spared, and saved. Adding to the sense of mystery and evidence of God's hand guiding the events was the fact of the motto of the 14th Bomber Squadron whose planes were used to drop those leaflets. Their motto was, "I'll spread my wings and keep my Promise."

The Balfour Declaration was basically a settlement agreement. On May 14, 1948, the Nation of Israel was officially recognized throughout the world. The timing of this restoration when viewed objectively is most curious. During the early 1940's, mankind demonstrated to God two events which surpassed all of man's previous atrocities. One event...was the Anti-Semitism of a nation, handed out by Germany, known as the greatest Holocaust in all of history. The second event was the use of nuclear force by the United States on Nagasaki and Hiroshima. Evidence that given time Man could destroy himself.

One more bit of history concerns the city of Jerusalem. The city was a divided province up until the Arab-Israelis Six Day War of 1967. The Jews were outnumbered and outgunned enormously but miraculously the Jews captured the city and maintained military control over it. However, due to the great significance of Jerusalem as the Holy City for Islam, Christianity as well as Judaism, they did not have political control. Worldwide restraints orchestrated this limitation. But God prevailed nonetheless, in the week of April 23, 1990, the Jews took full control and were able to announce Jerusalem as their state capital with sufficient United Nations support.

And So...“Preparation” for the beginning of the Seventieth Week of Daniel is complete (DANIEL 9:27). In closing, the study of God’s prophetic word reveals this...Man, blinded by his own self-righteousness, is failing to see God’s righteousness and the Christian church is no exception. The Rebirth of Israel is not my word but God’s. It’s all over the Old Testament and most noted in Ezek. Ch 37 “Valley of Dry Bones”. In Romans Ch 11 “Olive Tree Parable” called a covenant by God keeps their reality alive. The Book of Revelations demands a Jewish gospel during the tribulation period (REVELATIONS 7:1-8). Be forewarned that as the rise in Anti-Semitism increases the more evident God’s presence shall be witnessed.and.at the signing of the covenant (modern term: peace treaty) so begins Daniel’s Seventieth Week and at that moment in God’s plan, all will be Gentiles except for the Jew.

The Final Paradox is this:

“Will the Gentiles make the same mistake against God’s Chosen People (Armageddon) as the Jews made against their own Messiah?” God states, “Delusions shall be sent” (2 THESS. 2:10-12). I am beginning to understand his words as he so states them. If the Jew can be tested and persecuted so thoroughly for trying to please God through the Law and yet He uses their error to offer salvation to all Gentiles even me, what right does the Gentile have to be left untried?

With this Final Revelation...I know I have found Truth. I only seek to share this moment of spiritual enlightenment for the benefit of others. Their is a Voice in my mind which says,

“Tell the people...tell the people...Tell your people.”
AMEN.

Gregory A. Booker

P.S. So where is the Church of Christ during the Seventieth Week of Daniel (week = 7 years)? Shall the Old Testament clash with the New Testament? Shall the ‘Church of Christ’ be subjected to the Wrath of the Lord “in that Day”? I offer you a word of comfort, see 1 THESS. 4:15-18. Thank you for your time, I only seek to Plant a Seed of Concern, with all due respect to your ministry.

All these things are a prerequisite to the:

SECOND COMING OF JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD AND SAVIOR.

AND

THE FINAL BLESSING FOR THE REMNANT OF ISRAEL THROUGHOUT THE AGES.

LETTER II

Inspired 22 November 1990

PROPHECY IS ALIVE AND WELL & ISRAEL IS THE KEY

From the Bible: Highlights of ROMANS 11, “The Olive Tree Parable.”

- A. Is Israel cast away forever...God forbid.
- B. God foreknew Israel’s error.
- C. Christianity is “Contrary to nature.”
- D. Warns Christians not to be conceited and boastful.
- E. God reveals, “Until the fullness of the Gentiles comes in.” This implies a period of termination.
- F. And so Israel shall be Saved.
- G. Israel is the Root.
- H. Christianity are the Branches.

NOTE: Many other religions have also grown as branches from the Root by condemning the Jews for their error, most notably is Islam.

- I. For Israel, hope is eternal...and will their Final Blessings be the greater. for all mankind.

Conclusion: Mankind be forewarned. For God’s Grace upon the Gentiles exists only as long as Israel does not (Israel was restored as a nation May 14, 1948)...they are indeed mutually exclusive. God will not favor both at the same time due to spiritual contradiction as reflected by prophecy. FIRST and SECOND THESSALONIANS details an event which is known as the Rapture. FIRST CORINTHIANS 15:51-

58 further supports such an occurrence. The significance of such a “sudden disappearance of believers in Christ” is to officially close Christ’s ministry on Earth so that God may continue with the fulfillment of the Redemption of Israel through repentance and ultimately Israel calling for their Messiah out of desperation. This is a technical requirement which Israel has yet to fulfill in order to bring the literal return of Christ.

With the Restoration of Israel, it is becoming all too clear the potential for God’s Word to fulfill itself unbeknown to the world including self-righteous religious leaders. It was also prophesied that Israel shall once again take possession of Jerusalem. Under much world opposition, the Jews were able to reclaim control and call it their capital in April 1990. Even to the most novice observer, Israel’s return as a nation after approximately 2000 years of non-existence is simply miraculous. I, however, give the credit to God and God alone, since he revealed such in the Bible over 2500 years ago and restates it profoundly throughout the New Testament. Let’s also consider the fact that it’s the very same most important strategically placed real estate called the Promised Land. Coincidence?

Let me say this...the Holy Spirit has indeed spoken to me revealing what is to come. But it is only because I made it clear in my prayers to God that I wanted Truth no matter how difficult it may be to believe, that such Truth was given to me. I studied long and hard to objectively understand the necessity of the return of God’s Chosen People. I now know that from God’s perspective, dare I say, that the long awaited Promises made to the many servants of God from the Nation of Israel is rightfully due. Consider the Root of the Olive Tree Parable.

And consider this...All men stand to be in Error against Israel and ultimately against God Himself if they know not the Truth. The Final Paradox is this: “Will the Gentiles make the same mistake against God’s Chosen People (Armageddon) as the Jews made against their own Messiah?” The answer is a resounding Yes! This explains why the Book of Revelations is written and that the Battle of Armageddon will indeed be fulfilled in the Valley of Jehosaphat just outside of the most holy city on Earth...Jerusalem.

Be forewarned that God states, “Delusions shall be sent” (Second THESSALONIANS. 2:9-11). This means that without the knowledge of Truth, our liberalistic attitudes about God become self-righteous and suspect if the literal Word of God is forsaken. As the “delusions” challenge Man’s belief in the things of God, an interesting phenomenon occurs. The different “liberal beliefs” of Man are beginning to form a universal thought which conflicts with Truth itself. God’s delusions are the tools which actually begin the process of separating the Wheat from the Tares...be forewarned.

So that you may know the Truth of the Lord, I appeal to you to review certain prophetic biblical sections for your own enrichment concerning what the world is going through in these most trying times. The following are the most profound:

Matthew 24: (Spoken approx. 30 AD)

Jesus foretells the Signs of His Coming and how it coincides with the End of the World. Key verse is 15 which refers to the Book of Daniel.

Daniel 9:22-27 (Written 535 BC):

Matthews 24:15 is citing verse 27 of Daniel. This unfulfilled week (week = 7 years) is known as the Seventieth Week of Daniel. All scholars recognize this week literally unique unto Israel. Notice that a covenant will be made with someone else for the 7 year period. I ask you this, “What is the world insisting on Israel to do?” Is it not to agree to settle for peace! Modern term covenant is indeed peace treaty. Potential!!! Key verse is 27.

Revelations 11:2, 13:5 (Written approx. 96 AD)

Revelations is the only book in the Bible which measures itself by time. Notice 42 months & another 42 months of rule by “him to continue.” 84 months divided by 12 = 7 years. This is conclusive that when Israel and someone else signs a peace settlement, God states that Man has 7 years of this world as we know it before the Second Coming of Christ. Revelations is also the time of which Matthews 24 and Daniel’s Week is referring to.

Ezekiel 34, 36, & 37 (Written approx. 580 BC)

The clearest most definitive evidence of the Restoration of Modern Israel, commonly known as the “Valley of Dry Bones.”

Ezekiel 35, 38, 39 (Written approx. 580 BC)

The type and character of the people and nations who will surround Israel at their rebirth. Mount Seir (Edomites) is the location of the Arab countries and notice the words “perpetual hatred”. How true today. Also, the Land of Gog is the Soviet Union and their Republics. Even quite a few African nations have been backed by anti-semitic rhetoric. The most obvious is that they all are highly Anti-Semitic. These biblical battles are unfulfilled to date but do they not have tremendous potential to be realized?

2 Timothy 3 & 4, 2 Peter 3:1-8 2 Peter 2:1-2, Thess 2:3,9-12 Romans Chapter 1

The immoral and deviant character of Man in the last days. God knows his creation better than we think! And the signs of an Apostate Church of unbelief in God as He has been known.

Man today, is too “modern” to consider ancient words having any meaning to current events. There is so much more that can be said. Remember this, Jesus Christ is the only Messiah God approved for Man in order to someday be in God’s Eternal Kingdom. Man is growing weary of Faith and Faith alone in God since it’s been 2000 years waiting. There are many more biblical verses that reiterate all that has been told you. Be forewarned that Anti-Semitism which is on the rise throughout the world is the tool of God’s Adversary...Satan.

I have often asked the question, “Why have the Nation of Israel received no glory for their blood, sweat, and tears as inspired by their relationship with God yet by their error were we, “the Gentiles,” saved, without being put to the test as they were?” This is what the Holy Spirit has allowed me to see, but only because I asked the question.

I now know that God’s righteousness is Pure and Just. There is indeed a spiritual battle in the midst. Who would resist Christ’s Second Coming more than anyone else. None more than Satan...who can work his deception on anyone who is unaware of the Truth from God Himself. I glorify in the magnificence of such a God who is master of our souls and offers Eternal Life to all who overcome and accept his only begotten Son as our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ the MESSIAH. Let his Atonement for our Sins be not in vain.

In closing, the study of God's prophetic word reveals this...Man, blinded by his own self-righteousness, is failing to see God's righteousness and the Christian church is no exception. The Rebirth of Israel is not my word but God's. There is a Voice in my mind which says,

“Tell the people...tell the people...Tell Your People.”

AMEN! ST. JOHN 16:13 And PETER 1:18-21

Gregory A. Booker

P.S. If you fear the question, you stand never to receive the answer and the answer is only as good as the question you ask. I have given you an answer though you have asked me no question. I only seek to Plant a Seed of Concern. Thank you.

SPIRITUAL INSIGHT: ISRAEL'S HOPE IS IN THE OLIVE TREE PARABLE AND MAY THIS BE WISDOM:

- A. It is most clear that the State of Israel and their possession of the Holy City Jerusalem is a biblical requirement precluding the Book of REVELATIONS.
- B. It is most clear that the signing of a covenant with Israel will identify the Antichrist (leader of a Ten Nation Confederacy) and the False Prophet (leader of Israel). In addition, it represents the final seven years of this current age known as the Church Age. The Book of REVELATIONS is officially opened at the signing of the covenant and at the end of the seven year period the Day of Redemption shall be realized for Israel, ushering in the Millennial Kingdom for all other believers in the one True God and his Son Jesus Christ. Thus, it is written in 1 THESSALONIANS 5:1-6:

“But of the times and the seasons, ye have no need that I write unto you. For yourselves know perfectly that the Day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. For when they shall say Peace and Safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them...and they shall not escape. But ye, brethren are not in darkness that that day should overtake you as a thief. Ye are all children of the light...not of darkness. Therefore, let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.”

And this is the kingdom to come.

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. And He that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new!”
(REVELATION 21:4-5)

- C. Caution: For the Gentile error shall be “Thou works shall support faith but faith in what? For can it not be obscured without Truth as it’s mentor and Grace as its final gift.” Remember, did not the Jews have all the faith in the world concerning the First Coming of Jesus and yet persecute him. For by the Law they sought to achieve grace and failed. So is not the Gentile full of faith and if not careful uses his works to justify receipt of God’s grace. For the final word is Grace is given, not earned. Given by Permission, not owed through Works.
- D. Just like Jesus’ First Coming...poor...dressed in sackcloth...the Jews were so deluded except for a Remnant. So shall the Gentiles be deluded by the “False Persona” of the Nation of Israel. They shall take it upon themselves to destroy God’s Chosen People except for a remnant... the Raptured (Church of Christ) and the Tested (Tribulation Saints). And so Israel will repent out of desperation with no where to turn but to Jesus and Israel shall be saved...and so shall Man. As the Jew so is the Gentile!

ABOUT THE WRITER

I have often asked the question...“Why me, Oh Lord! Why am I given such divine insight concerning the mysteries of His Word and am so compelled to reveal them to all?” The Spirit of Truth gives me one simple answer. and that is this...the right question must be asked!! The questions that most are afraid to consider. And so I searched and sought out the answers for such difficult questions praying that I should never lose sight of the “correct perspective.” For it was already being made clear that by the type of inquiries, I was acknowledging the “correct perspective.” That perspective is God and God alone.

I have no degree in Theology...I have no experience in ministering the Word and I have only been attending church within the last 3 years on a regular basis after almost 20 years of absence. However, I became interested in the legitimacy of prophecy and with a fondness for the history of man asked 2 simple questions. Question #1...realizing that the Old Testament dealt almost exclusively with Israel, I asked this...“What is the meaning of Israel’s Rebirth of May, 1948 and does it have any prophetic significance?” Question #2...without doubting the literal intent of the Book of REVELATIONS, I asked...“How could Man be so wrong and God be so right that such a book had to be written?” And so I began a consuming search for Truth...Could Islam and Christianity, which do disagree, both be right? God forbid! If this was the case, righteousness would have no honor. The True God must speak to all men the same. This is my absolute principle. Let us be well aware of the fact that man does have free will but unfortunately, free will is no guarantee that one is in accordance with God’s Will.

And so I searched, studying prophecy, Jewish history and religion in general...over 20 books costing a mere $250.00 being read in less than 18 months. Certainly a small investment but a great revelation. For I find the emphasis of the True God is NOT Religion but TRUTH...for Truth is a fact demonstrated by God Himself. This is what I really saw while studying Christ's First Coming. And I see the Truth demonstrating itself slowly but surely against the many false doctrines (A.K.A. Religion) of this illustrious generation in preparation of Christ's Second Coming.

Now I see what the great Apostle Paul was blessed to see for our benefit by the grace of God and the Spirit of Truth directs me to write it down. For it is written in JEREMIAH 33:3, "Call to me and I will answer and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know." Therefore, I conclude on myself desiring that my efforts and my faith by the grace of God add knowledge, insight, clarity, and hope in these most challenging times...there is indeed a Light at the end of the tunnel. And that Light is none other than Jesus, which the Spirit bares record in 1 JOHN 5:11, "And this is the record, that God hath given to us Eternal Life, for this Life is (only) in His Son." Thank you and AMEN!!!!

LETTER III

Inspired: First Week of April, 1991

THE PARADOX OF THE SEVENTIETH WEEK OF DANIEL

After the Angel of the Lord reveals to Daniel the Prophet, the future of Mankind, and Israel in particular, and Daniel reflecting his dismay at not understanding God's revelations. In the Book of DANIEL 12, the Angel directs Daniel to "Shut up the words and seal the book," and "Go thy way Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed Till the time of the end."

After the Apostle Paul reveals, through the Holy Spirit, divine knowledge concerning the relationship between Jew and Gentile in the "Olive Tree Parable" ROMANS 11, Paul praises God's Plan. For in verse 33, he writes, "Oh...the depths of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgements, and his ways past finding out!"

The Book of REVELATIONS reveals the Angelic Realm applauding the Lord and the Lamb (Jesus) for their long-suffering patience and love towards all men...but now the time has come. And John, the writer of the book, is a witness of who is worthy to judge Mankind. (See CH 4 & 5.)

So when the time has come, who will be worthy to judge and what is the criteria for such worthiness? The Book of REVELATIONS gives the honor and the glory of such worthiness to Jesus Christ!! Why? The answer is simple...he earned it! Can we say that there has only been one individual who was crucified unjustly and without mercy yet did not commit one sin? The True God states the penalty for sin is death. Jesus therefore did not deserve to die. This is the very reason Jesus was resurrected and the very reason why He and He alone is worthy to judge and defeat his real adversary, Satan and unfortunately Man in his unbelief. This is the centerpiece of Truth!

LET US NOW KNOW THE VERDICT OF THE LORD

It is best that I open this revelation about the future by reflecting on the past. For it is understood that if one is to determine the accuracy of prophecy, modern man can do so perhaps better than any other generation. I have discovered the prophetic Word of God to be without error. While predicting when events occur is the popular definition, it is by no means the most significant. The greater purpose of prophecy is to interpret the results of key events in accordance with the Divine Will. And this is by far the more difficult task to perform.

There are two historical facts which must be brought to the forefront that I recognize as paramount to understanding Truth. Before I address the main topic, I recommend all to consider what should be obvious but is not, concerning these two key observation.

1.) The Jewish Burden-It is written in ZEPHANIAH 3:18, "I will gather them that are sorrowful for the solemn assembly, who are of thee, to whom the reproach of it was a burden." It is written in MICAH 7:9, "I (Israel) will bear the indignation of the Lord, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness." It is written in ZECHARIAH 8:13, "And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen." And it is written in the New Testament, ROMANS 11:11, "I say then, have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall, salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to (eventually) provoke them (Israel) to jealousy.

I ask all. who are the writers of the Bible? Are they not the Jews! I ask all. whose experiences does the Christian churches depend on? Is it not the biblical characters and are they also Jewish! I ask all...whose errors have been used for our benefit? Is it not Israel's! And one final observation. Who had the responsibility of measuring up to God's standards and documenting the results without bias for all the world to see while the Gentiles continued in their sins? None other than the Jews by the election of God Himself! It should become clear what is being stressed.

Every Sunday, the Christian churches depend upon the Jewish relationship to God in understanding how all men must relate to Him. It is a blessed honor to the Jewish people, but God knew it would also create a special curse upon them. And so it has, as history reveals (notice how Truth demonstrates itself prophetically). Through the ordainment of God, the Jews have given the Gentiles the Bible... What has the Gentiles given in return? That is the question with no real answer. Therefore, no one on this planet should be prejudice against the Jew. However, even in the Christian churches, Anti-Semitism is indeed present. Case in point...as different as the Roman Catholic Church is from Islam, guess what they both agree on. Neither recognize Jewish Zionism rights! And though they have different reasons, it is the same conclusion that is alarming.

I now understand why God told us about Israel in the Abrahamic Covenant in Genesis 12:2-3, "I will curse those who curse thee and bless those who bless thee." Verse 4 continues "and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed". The gospel of Christ has reached across the globe to include men and women around the world. A proof of the prophetic word of God proving His reality. History supports this phenomenon. For their contributions have aided God in revealing to Man all we know of the True God unaware of it themselves.

Let us as Christians recognize and accept God's Chosen People who have been burdened by the necessary Work of the Lord. Their burden has been our gain. This fact actually proves beyond a shadow of a doubt that there is a very real and very awesome eternal Supreme Being among us...Amen!

Let us understand Israel's Rebirth of May, 1948 and the continuing exodus of the Jews from around the world as a preparation for their final blessing. I also understand why they have been so often falsely accused. I won't hesitate to say that this deception could have satanic origin and so I forewarn all. Here is where the Spirit of Truth reveals a very dark secret. Satan, through the weakness of men, has continuously sought to invalidate the prophetic word of God by attempting to destroy the Jews. If a man has no love for his neighbor...he has no love for Truth. And no matter what faith he has...he stands to be in error when Truth is demonstrated by God Himself. The Jewish burden has been very real, therefore, I know their blessing will be also. First the Jew...then the Gentiles!

Envy has no place here.

2.) Paradox Defined-It is very important that the meaning of paradox is understood. Webster defines it as, "A proposition contrary to received opinion; also an assertion seemingly contradictory or opposed to common sense but may yet be true in fact." It has perfect application to Christ's First Coming when the Jews refused to believe he was their Messiah sent by God. Shall the Gentiles make the same mistake...failing to recognize Christ's Second Coming...relying on their own wisdom?? And would it be fair to test the Jew and not also the Gentile? It is written that God foreknew the error of the Jews...He therefore, I assure you, foreknows the error of the Gentiles...be forewarned.

Oh...the magnificence of the Lord...he has indeed blessed me to "see" His word so clearly. I sought out the Truth and he has given it abundantly. May you also be blessed by the reading of these words.

LET US NOW BEGIN ON "THE WEEK"

ALSO KNOWN AS: THE TRIBULATION PERIOD

- IN THE LATTER TIMES
- THE DAY OF THE LORD (to mankind)
- THE TIME OF JACOB'S TROUBLE (to Israel)
- THE BOOK OF REVELATION (to the Church)

Without being too technical, I will highlight what the Seventy Weeks of DANIEL is. Chapter 9 of the Book of DANIEL, dated approximately 530 BC, reflects Daniel praying, desiring to know what is God's future dealings with Israel. Gabriel the messenger comes to answer his prayer, giving him skill and understanding. Verse 24 states, “Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city (Jerusalem).” These weeks are based on the Jewish sabbatical week of years described in LEVITICUS 25. Each week equals 7 years times 70 weeks which equals 490 years. Verse 24 continues by revealing the fulfillment of conditions at the conclusion of the 490 year period of God’s jurisdiction. These conditions as stated are:

1. To finish the transgression.
2. To make an end of sins.
3. To make reconciliation for iniquity.
4. To bring in everlasting righteousness.
5. To seal up the vision and the prophecy.
6. And to Anoint the most Holy.

Verse 25 and 26 reveals what will happen from the “Commandment to restore Jerusalem...to the cutting off of the Messiah.” This time span covered exactly 69 Weeks or 483 years (based on the Jewish calendar of 360 days per year). The balance of verse 26 details the destruction of the sanctuary (Jewish Temple) which did occur in 70 AD. This represented God’s abandonment of his people for their error committed against their Messiah.

Verse 25 & 26 were fulfilled as written...I researched it in greater detail to confirm such. At times, God’s revelations can be so complex but even for the less studious person he makes his plan simple. If you don’t understand one thing I’ve revealed, go back to the conditions stated in verse 24 and ask yourself, “Have any of these conditions been yet fulfilled?” Even the most simple minded would have to say...No!! Of course not, because there is “one week” unaccounted for. History reveals Jewish dispersion from 70 AD to 1948 with no restoration in between.

Verse 27 has outstanding one week which is to be confirmed by a covenant. At this point, we know one week equals 7 years and that an agreement will be made with Israel and someone else known as “he.” I consider verse 27 to be a technical verse because it implies so much but I will strive to maintain simplicity. Now notice, vs 27 continues, “...in the midst, he shall cause the sacrifice to cease.” What sacrifice? This reference implies far more than the average person realizes. It demands the Jews exist as a nation...they possess Jerusalem...so that they may rebuild their Temple...then they can perform their sacrifices once again before the Lord. However, “he” who signed the agreement (probably a treaty of protection) with Israel will break his agreement in the midst (at 3 1/2 years) and stop the Jewish worship to the Lord and will proclaim himself to be God. He will stand in the holy place (the Holy of Holies situated only in the Jewish Temple). This is the Abomination of Desolation spoken of and the “he” who performs the act is the Anti-Christ.

Let me again state that what I truly seek to reveal is the potential for key events to occur. Currently there is strong undercurrents to begin a serious attempt at discussing and achieving peace with Israel and the Arabs. I am convinced that this “week” has yet to begin but is probable within a few years or even sooner.

The next key element is the issue of the Jews determination to rebuild their temple. Again, I stress it is the interpretation of events that is critical. For example, on October 9, 1990, 20 Palestinians were killed. The news article reported that there “was a rumor that a small group of Jewish radicals were planning to lay a cornerstone for a new Jewish temple on the sanctuary where the Moslem Mosque stands. “The issue of whether the Israelis used excessive force as in defending themselves may never be known. However, Israel’s last and only ally, the United States, caught in a political bind because of the Arab coalition participants in Desert Storm...weakened. The U.S. agreed with the majority, condemning Israel for it’s “act of aggression” overlooking Israel’s claims. I am sure the U.S. position with Israel was further fractured by the selling of weapons to the Arab coalition members in opposing Iraq. I assure you that the Arabs are ironically in a greater position collectively to challenge Israel than before Desert Storm. This is just one of the examples of how complex and contrary things really are.

To demonstrate further in EZEKIEL 35:1-5, Ezekiel is told to prophecy against Mount Seir...Earlier scripture identifies such as the land of the Edomites, ancient tribal name for the modern Arabs. Verse 5 reads, “Because thou has had a perpetual hatred, and has shed the blood of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity...I will make Mount Seir most desolate.” This chapter is in the midst of prophetic information revealing Israel’s Rebirth. CH 34, 36, and 37 of EZEKIEL. Currently, it is officially reported that of the approximately 20 Arab nations, 13 of them has a policy of annihilation against Israel. But through prophet ZECHARIAH 14:1-4, it is written, “Behold, the Day of the Lord cometh...For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle: and the city shall be taken and the houses rifled, and the women ravished and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city. Then shall the Lord go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. And His Feet shall stand in that Day upon the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem.”

I do not mean to imply that Israel is not without it’s own faults. The Lord does not favor unbelief...either Jew or Gentile (see ZECHARIAH 13:8-9). For the vengeance truly is the Lord’s for He shall repay... ROMANS 12:19. For the “children of disobedience” has been blinded by the ruler of this world and Satan is as an “angel of light” and is the father of all lies. Yes...It is sad that such hate exists against a nation such as Israel considering all it’s contributions to Man’s salvation. I am convinced that it can only be deception at it’s finest orchestrated by the Adversary to God Himself...for a time...just a little more time and “he” knows it.

Jesus References “The Week”-Another very important scriptural reference to this one week is by Jesus himself. In MATTHEWS 24:15, almost 600 years later, he speaks a direct statement to its further fulfillment still pending. No act of desecration of any kind in the temple occurred during the destruction of the temple in 70 AD by the Romans. Neither did the world end nor did Christ return which is the question Jesus is answering in MATTHEWS 24.

In fact, if one looks closely at MATT 24:22, “Except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect’s sake, those days shall be shortened,” you will realize that Christ is not coming to destroy the world but to save it. He will however, defeat those who resist his coming. It is strange that such a glorious opportunity for man will be lost to many. I forewarn all while yet there is time. For Jesus states...“Behold, I have told you before!” (MATT 24:25.)

SHALL WE NOW KNOW THE FUTURE Repentance Defined

To change one's mind or one's heart with regard to past or intended action or conduct on account of regret. A genuine request for forgiveness as a result of great sorrow. Based on an acknowledgement of fault or error and desiring forgiveness of the transgression.

Israel's Current Spiritual Condition-It is written, that when Israel is restored that they "as a nation" will still be in unbelief concerning Jesus. Their blindness continues as prophesied. And so it is...in fact, the Jews who do believe in Christ (a tiny minority) are excluded from automatic citizenship in their own homeland...Israel! News articles have revealed the majority of Jews that are in Israel call themselves Humanistic Jews: "a growing international movement where the desire is to have a temple with a congregation and a rabbi where no one believes in God." Without question...they are lost. A required redemption proves their blindness.

Another class of Jews that have residence in Israel, though in the minority, are the Orthodox Jews. It is the Orthodox Jew who reads at least the Old Testament books...perform the Mosaic Laws...and continue to wait on their Messiah yet reject Jesus. Therefore, could it be reasoned that it is they who will ultimately repent when placed under the duress of the Anti-Christ. For as Jesus forewarned, or can we say prophesied, that the Jews would reject Him. Jesus speaking prophetically states in MATT 23:38-39..."Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord." Could Israel's rejection require Israel's repentance? Is this what our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ waits for? His grace abounds! Oh...But the Jew's unbelief in God is not just among themselves!

The Mystery of the Gentiles-and here is wisdom: Gentiles can easily identify the Jew but few people, whether white...black...Indian... Arab...Chinese...Russian...American...Cuban or anything else "see" themselves as all in one group...GENTILES!!! Dare I say, that this is the only way God sees us...always has and always will. This is the barrier I crossed...And I heard the Angels applaud my vision of spiritual clarity. For it is the Gentiles with each having their own pride that blinds themselves. "Little Pharisees" would be perfect representation, dare I say, from God's viewpoint.

There is so much divisiveness among the Gentiles, including Christians, that one will not hear the other even if it is the Truth. The question, “What is truth?” has been answered and proven...it is unbelief that blinds. For it is written in 2 THESSALONIANS 2:3, “Let no man deceive you by any means: For that day (Day of Christ) shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition.” It is becoming obvious that due to the religious pluralism among the Gentiles that the field is ripe for an erosion of biblical principals and a conclusive “falling away” by Christianity to also take on an Apostate form of unbelief!

And May This Be Wisdom

CONCLUSION: The unbelief of Gentiles will open the eyes of Israel to call for their Messiah who they first rejected and Israel shall be saved. For while most men believe in a God...The True God ask all to believe in His Work...a very real Work, Jesus. For what good is faith in God if you ignore His Perfect Work...And that's the catch!

DO YOU SEE THE PARADOX!!!!!!!!!!!!?????

The Righteousness of the Lord Demonstrated

Apostasy Defined-“An abandonment of what one has voluntarily professed; a total desertion or departure from one’s faith, principals, and beliefs also, one who has forsaken his religion for another.”

A one world religion to come is no secret to a lot of Christians...but what is the form it will take. I have but a glimpse of what I see forming on the horizon. May it give you vision and strengthen your walk with Jesus above all.

I will briefly discuss two events...one which is obvious and the other which is not so obvious. First is the issue of permitting gay priests to preach. Last year, the Roman Catholic Church gave in to the mounting pressures of humanistic choice. A statement from the leaders allowed gay ministry if the congregation voted their approval. Even in the Protestant Branch the issue is being considered. Recent news broadcasts revealed the Episcopalians and Presbyterian denominations will discuss their rationale this summer. It should not even be an issue...but it is.

The second event is but a whisper now but do I see far more. There is a group of religious leaders...experts mind you...who are selling the idea that “as long as Jerusalem and Palestine are viewed as Holy Land and Promised Land rather than secular and geographic territory, we will never have a peaceful settlement in the Middle East. We have to de-sacrilize, de-biblicize Jerusalem and Palestine.” I ask all...Who called it the Promised Land? Did not the Lord Himself? Is Man employing sound doctrine? And just what is De-Biblicize?? Could it mean to “take out” biblical references denying God’s truths openly and conclusively. These “religious leaders” covered a variety of Christian denominations. Their opinions can cause so many others to follow...Be Forewarned! The real problem is if you are not sure of Truth, how can you be sure of what is Not!!

For it is Written...” Even as there shall be false teachers among you, who shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that brought them.<sup>2</sup> PETER 2:1...While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption...For if they had escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse than the beginning. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than after they had known it and to turn from the holy commandment.” (2 PETER 2:19-21.)

CONCLUSION:

Spiritual Insight concerning the “Signing of the Covenant” acts as a covenant of condemnation upon Man. For by giving 2 classes of unbelievers what they want by permitting their religious apostasy to be expressed and formalized conclusively in Israel’s ultimate peace treaty. Both the Jew and the Gentile are dealt with collectively... The Lord plays no favorites but he will use one to achieve the other.

Case in point...God states in ZECHARIAH 13:8-9 that 1/3 of the Jews shall be saved. So this means 2/3 will be lost. This means that it will take the loss of 2/3 Jews before they recognize their blindness and repent; turning to Jesus to be saved and not by their own effort or weapons. God will allow Satan to gather all unbelieving Gentiles to attempt to destroy all the Jews. Anti-Semitism shall escalate dramatically as time moves on. The Messiah shall indeed come down at his calling and Redeem Israel. And does this not indeed “provoke Israel to jealousy”...ROMANS 11:11!

This process actually aids God in passing Judgment on Man and his unbelief in the literal Word of the Lord. Do you see the Paradox? Oh... Much has been said, perhaps the unexpected, perhaps the unwanted, perhaps the nerve...but most of all...perhaps the truth!!! The Art of Deception is to be blind to being deceived...For history reveals, it is unbelievers who make the Prophetic Word of God become so true.

Do you see why such a noble cause as a “peace treaty” is determined to represent the opening of the Book of REVELATIONS?

Do you see the Paradox of the Seventieth Week of DANIEL?

Let it be said...the Lord always gives us Hope, let us receive of it!

For it is written in 1 CORINTHIANS 14:3, “But he that prophesies speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.” I have edified the Church. May I now conclude with exhortation and comfort.

Exhortation

One of the main aspects of the true Christian is to recognize God’s election of his chosen people to reach out to the world to save mankind so that all can partake of his promise to restore man to his original condition before the Fall of Adam. This is God’s ultimate goal and it is He who sets the conditions. Unfortunately, there is an adversary to God and Adam, in utilizing his free will, became subject to him.

Christ defeated the adversary by dying sinless on the cross. God states all men are sinners and that’s the only reason we die. His code of righteousness shall not waver and his love for us is even greater as demonstrated by Christ. Due to virgin birth, Christ was not born a sinner but had the challenge of becoming a sinner since he was of the flesh. He committed no sin...so the question should be why was he so viciously crucified? The answer...Satan himself was trying, through the weakness of men, to make Christ commit just one sin. Be it cursing... showing pride...or finally to strike back. Jesus succeeded by doing none of these. He certified the Righteousness and the Love of God, justifying men through their faith in Christ, that we are qualified to enter into that Eternal Kingdom at the appointed time. Yes...the eternal life that was lost in Adam is now regained by the sacrifice of The Christ on the Cross. Thus, it is written in 1 CORINTHIANS 2:7-8, “But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory: Which none of the princes of this world knew, for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory.” Oh...The wisdom of the Lord exposed the pride of the Adversary and “Therefore, thou art inexcusable, O Man, whosoever thou art that judgeth” (ROMANS 2:1).

Now God is restoring Israel to receive the Promises made to the many Servants of the Lord from that nation. When Israel call their Messiah...they will be saved. I forewarn all that the darkest hour is about to come on Man. This generation can look backwards and measure the words of God, but too few do. I have done so and see a mighty God soon to reveal Himself. Think of ancient words fulfilling themselves and there is nothing we can do about it. This kind of Power is immeasurable by the human mind. I am not afraid to admit that I and we are but pawns given an opportunity to someday stand before Him per His Terms. God knows we can't be perfect (though we keep trying). That's why he gave us an example of perfection and ask us to believe in His Perfect Work as He demonstrated it.

There are plenty of “self-righteousness doctrine” pretending to be right even in the Christian Church. If I may state my opinion on the matter, the problem with Christianity is it's “Personality.” It ain't Christ...and I mean just that...ain't! We should seek to live like and in Christ...but do we? I'm not passing judgment, but time is of the essence. Therefore, let us pray for a strong back. just in case we are given a heavy load to bare!

I SEEK TO COMFORT BY MY PERSONAL TESTIMONY

Jesus reveals, “The Father shall send the Comforter...Even the Spirit of Truth; whom the world cannot receive because it seeth him not. I will not leave you comfortless...I will come to you! But the Comforter, the Holy Spirit, sent in my name, He shall teach you all things and bring all things to your remembrance.” (JOHN 14.) And so He surely has!

And finally as a personal testimony, I desire to let it be known that at this point and time I am called to speak in the office of a prophet. A calling which I found hard to believe at first and have come to accept realizing that it is a burden but oh...is it a burden of joy. I sought Truth out as PROVERBS 2:1-9 instructed and I know that Wisdom and Knowledge are more precious than gold as PROVERBS 3:13-20 reveals. So...for no price or purchase do I give to others what has been freely given to me.

This man has learned to cry again for Mankind regardless of the color of one's skin, his political beliefs, his criminal record, his irreligious principals, his customs and regardless of his hate for Truth. They are lost, but these are who Jesus died for, so who am I to judge. I know not the Day but I glorify in the coming Messiah to Redeem Israel...and Man. And So Should All! For then at that time, Jew and Gentile who do believeth shall eat at the same Table and serve the same Lord.

I have prayed to God to feed me so that I may feed others. He has graciously answered my prayers. However, I do feel the Holy Spirit has given me such intimate answers only because the time is so near. For when the Hand of God can be revealed from beginning to it's very end and still mankind does not heed...What then? Thus, it is written in 1 CORINTHIANS 2:12-13, "Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which Man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Spirit teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual." This is the wisdom and the hope that I proclaim to all that have an ear!

Therefore, when you have a measure of Faith and just a little Understanding...pray for a sign to confirm what I do write. I am not above being tested and I have sought confirmation myself and have received a confirming sign of supernatural origin. If your heart is open and you are overcome with joy concerning the secrets I reveal, then all I ask is this...what I have given to you, do the same. Give a copy to another. Share...for I know that's what God really asks of us. For it is the best way to demonstrate Faith and above all, Love.

Yes. the true Rainbow Coalition are those who follow Christ thereby overcoming their biases. If thou follow fully the commandment, "Love thy neighbor as thyself,” you won’t find yourself being prejudice and ultimately opposed to what God is doing. Yes...The Prophetic Word of God states that in the last days, “Love shall wax cold!” I forewarn that you may also be forearmed and not surprised lest ye be caught unaware and unprepared. Therefore, Stand and be Unmovable in your Faith... And that your Faith might be found in Christ and Christ only!

I thank God for his patience...for He has indeed been long-suffering toward us, but there comes a time...and perhaps the time has come. Indeed can we say the time is in this generation. If so be it...I Stand, even in my trials, I Stand on the Shoulders of the Prophets and Shout Their Words Amen and Amen!!!

A LETTER OF CONCLUSION...

I always thought of the Book of Revelation as just one huge chaotic battle. I could not determine who was fighting who and why. I also found it difficult to grasp how the whole world could be in error and ultimately condemned...either by God or by Man himself. It is these thoughts which led me to ask the question.” How could Man be so wrong and God be so right that such a book had to be written?” In the middle of all my search for the answer, the nation of Israel kept coming into view. And so I considered a second question...” What is the meaning of Israel’s Rebirth of May 1948 and does it have any prophetic significance?” At this point and time an answer has been provided and my search is finished.

Without question, I desire all to know what I have come to know. I realized this compassion as the Spirit revealed His Truths so clearly and consistently. And so I was directed to write so that I might better reveal to those a perspective not being given proper attention. For the Spirit of Truth states “That if it is given to me to know, then it is by faith my responsibility to reveal.” The Spirit only speaks God’s perspective. To date, I have written three “Articles of Divine Revelation”. They are:

- “The Necessity of the Return of God’s Chosen People” 16May90
- “Prophecy is Alive and Well and Israel is the Key” 22Nov90
- “The Paradox of the Seventieth Week of Daniel” 03Apr91

It is felt that these inspired letters could add tremendously to the edification of the Church concerning events in the decade of the 1990’s. I am honored that the Lord has placed them in my possession and I give my praise continuously to Him. Therefore I conclude on the matter, for I feel the most difficult and yet the most inspiring has been accomplished. It is a most refreshing thought to know that there will be a truly “everlasting righteousness” an “end to sins” and a very real “eternal life”. Yes, that Man has a God who had blessed him with so much more and yet will He do so again.

Let us covet Truth perhaps more than anything else for it is written “that some perish due to lack of knowledge”. Yes...I do issue a stern warning to all. Unbeknown to me at the time of the writing of my articles (1990s and beyond) was the recurring statement...Be forewarned!!! I do believe in a pre-tribulation rapture but that does not mean we wont be tried as the hour approaches. The real question is...do you believe in religion more than Truth?

I have attempted to explain the things we do see first! For I believe that if we can understand Israel’s Rebirth and that it is God’s calling, then we are in a much better frame of mind to believe what is yet to come. I know many will fall because of their unwillingness to consider God’s perspective thinking themselves right in their own eyes. It has happened so many times in history’s past and still Man has not learned. There is no excuse...the sin in this case is simply self-righteousness better known as pride. Man is full of it...therefore prepare to do without it. For it is written in Proverbs 16:18 “Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.”

I now look forward...desiring to add clarity to many points of interest concerning “prophetic structure” of future events. It is a very challenging task...but I do not take God’s Word in vain. If He thought it best to be written, let us think it best to be read. I will highlight a basic framework of key events to be fulfilled. I don’t have all the answers and I know that it is probably best no one does. But I am moved by the advice the scriptures gives to one and to all...For it is written in JAMES 5:19-20 “Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him; Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and hide a multitude of sins”. This is my mission...a prophet’s mission if you will. If God is eternal then why can’t we be also? And if Heaven is real then Hell must be as real...so I speak as a prophet; the Word of the Lord is Truth! And here is wisdom: When

Man abandons God...God shall abandon Man and Man in his unbelief shall fall prey to his own works of destruction

TEN HORNED KINGDOM LED BY THE ANTI-CHRIST

The Mysteries of the Book of Daniel

Purpose of the Book of Daniel-Details the prophecies of the Gentile world kingdoms from Daniel's day to the Millennium and eternal kingdom of God on Earth. It is written approximately 616 to 535 BC. and authored by Daniel a captive prince from Judah. He served as a prime minister under several kings and was gifted as an interpreter of dreams and visions. And he served as a prophet of the Lord.

THE MAN OF METALS

1. Kingdoms described as "The Man of Metals" (my designation) Daniel Ch 2:31-33
2. "a stone was cut out without hands" This is Jesus! Daniel Ch 2:34-35
3. An interpretation of the Man of Metals is given. Daniel Ch 2:36-43

Observation:

- a) The head of gold portion of the great image represented the first of five kingdoms in the vision. It is Babylon which had Israel in captivity for a period of 70 years at the time of the vision.

- b) The breast and arms of the image symbolizes the Medo-Persians kingdom which succeeded Babylon at the end of the 70 years captivity by Babylon. The two arms symbolizes the two nations, the Medes and the Persians. This kingdom was inferior to the Babylonian Empire as silver is to gold.
- c) The belly and the thighs symbolizes the Grecian Empire. Additional prophetic information is discussed in Chapter 8 of Daniel.
- d) The leg of iron image symbolizes the Roman Empire which followed Greece in the domination of Israel. This kingdom was to be stronger than all the preceding kingdoms as iron is stronger than gold, silver and brass, the two legs of iron represent the eastern and western divisions of the old Roman Empire due to its vastness.
- e) The feet and the toes of iron and clay represent the future revised Roman Empire, the 5th kingdom in the image to oppress

Israel in the “times of the Gentiles”. This being the last part of the image, is to be destroyed by the “stone” from heaven. Being part iron indicates a revived Roman Kingdom. The ten toes represent the ten nations that will exist in the last days before Christ’s return.

The “stone” that smote the image symbolizes the kingdom of heaven headed by the Lord Jesus Christ, at his Second coming, destroying the kingdoms of the current world system.

KINGDOMS DESCRIBED AS SYMBOLIC ANIMALS Daniel Chapter 7 vs 1-8

1. The king of Babylon was symbolized by the lion (Isaiah 5:29). The eagle’s wings also identify Babylon for it is compared to an eagle (Jeremiah 48:40). the lion denoted regalness...and the eagle for their swiftness of conquests over their enemies.

2. The second kingdom, which was like a bear, was the Media-Persia Empire, this is a fitting symbol because of their cruelty, thirst for blood, their robberies, and love of spoils (Isaiah 13:16-18). Also, the largest species of bear is found in the mountains of Media. The Babylon empire was conquered by the Medes and Persians about 530 BC when they ingeniously built the dam in the Euphrates River.
3. The leopard is a fitting symbol of the Grecian Empire founded by Alexander the Great. This animal is known for its quickness. This together with the 4 wings of a fowl denotes the double swiftness of conquests even over Babylon. The Greeks conquered the Persian empire in 331 BC. Verse 6 continues with “the beast had also four heads” as predicted in Daniel Ch 8, the Greek empire disintegrated when the first king died prematurely (Alexander). The prediction of the “four heads” became true when four powers from within divided the kingdom into four lesser kingdoms. Daniel Ch 8 reveals where the Anti-Christ shall come.
4. And behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible...and it had ten horns...and there came up among them another little horn. Verse 7 and 8 are the first signs of a kingdom which has not yet come.

Points of Interest:

- a) It is fascinating that Daniel wrote about events he himself did not know or have anything to do with in their later fulfillment. Time span alone covers over 500 years, not including the Ten Horns. It would be wise to conclude that if God can predict or perhaps “administer” 500 yrs. (Babylon thru Roman) God can predict 2000 yrs.
- b) It is easy to see why Daniel was so grieved at the visions, for these beast all had one common factor. They were gentile nations that had dominion over Israel as history has indeed proven.

- c) Why are there 2 different symbolic pictures to describe the same nations? Perhaps, it is to add greater clarity to who the nations are. To also emphasize their power and notably to provide more information on the Greek and the Ten Horns.
- d) Notice also that the 4th kingdom of the metals, Rome, is not mentioned in the kingdoms of animals. Why? The “kingdom of animals” represent each kingdom at the height of their power. As great as old Rome was, it shall be even greater near the end times. The iron legs which continue in the feet denotes a Roman presence that will sustain itself. And so it has. Over 2000 years and Roman culture is known and even respected world wide. There is a revised Roman kingdom yet to come.
- e) All the previous kingdoms dominated Israel but could not destroy it. If the pattern is to continue then Israel must exist as a nation once again if a valid domination is to occur... and so it does now. We are all familiar with the European Common Market...it is the iron of the feet but who is he Clay!!!!!!!!!!!!!!Time is Telling!!!!

FOUR HORNS REVEALED

Daniel chapter 8-The Ram (Medo-Persia) and The He-Goat (Greek)

The vision is given of the ram and the he-goat in Daniel Ch 8 vs 1-14 before its interpretation. In verse 16, the angel Gabriel is told to make Daniel understand the vision he saw. Daniel is also told “at the time appointed the end shall be.”

The interpreter identifies the he-goat as Grecia and as we know four kingdoms did stand up out of the nation. In verse 23, “and in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to full.” it implies that these nations will stay in existence until they reach their full power. Who are these nations? History gives the answer or better yet an encyclopedia will do wonders!

These four nations that at one time was representative of the Grecian Empire are today known as the following:

EGYPT      SYRIA      TURKEY      GREECE

Verse 23 continues with “a king of fierce countenance...shall stand up” this is a sign of the Anti-Christ! At this point all we know is that he will come from one of these nations. Their profile:

EGYPT	-Arab nation	religion is Islam
SYRIA	-Arab nation	religion is Islam
TURKEY	-Arab/Europe mix	religion is Islamic
GREECE	-European mix	religion is Greek Orthodox Church (Eastern is separate from the Roman Catholic and Protestant churches) Also Moslems are the largest religious minority.

Current political setup as a member of the European Common Market:

- a) Greece is a full fledged member and has been for some time.
- b) Turkey has requested membership recently but its status is pending.

ECM has given arguments opposing their application. I believe there are ulterior motives for ECM hesitancy...different racial type... different religion (Islamic).adverse form of government could explain their reluctance, though they may not admit it.

At this point I would like to address the issue of the best prophetic scripture of where the Anti-Christ shall come:

Daniel Chapter 11 deals prophetically with the future of the division of Greece into four kingdoms. It highlights the battles of war between “king of the north” which is Syria and “king of the south” which is Egypt. The series of conflict between these two nations begin to fulfill scripture primarily during apprx. 200 BC. Verse 31 reveals an act of abomination of desolation which was performed by Antiochus Epiphanes. He hated the Jews and desecrated the Jewish temple by slaughtering a pig in the Holies of Holy apprx. 165 BC. He was a Syrian king.

Now notice verse 35, it jumps forward to the “time of the end”. However, the reference to the kings of the north and the south continue. Both of these nations still do exist. Egypt and Syria in verse 40. Also verse 36-39 clearly reveals the personality of the Anti-Christ. Verse 40-43 details the conquest of which of the two nations? It is the king of the north who is pushed and then becomes the aggressor and the victorious one...none other than Syria. Therefore, the victorious nation must also be the nation led by none other than the Anti-Christ...Bravo!

Now further conclusions can be made by this discovery. Can we say he shall be Arab?...Can we also say that the best candidate to sign an effective peace treaty with Israel is the one who fights against Israel the most Syria! It seems quite remote that Syria and Egypt could be full members of the European Common Market. They are as different as people could be. Something dramatic would have to happen and between the two, Syria due to its terrorist label, seems impossible as a welcomed member. This distinction is a critical point to consider of which I will deal with later.

I detailed all this to perhaps lead us to a peculiar observation. And that is this, could a scenario present a situation for the Arabs that due to their logistics...sympathy (because of Desert Storm)...increased military strength...political fairness for a New World order and of course...Oil for economic stability, that they are indeed accepted. Furthermore, could the Arabs be the CLAY! Clay is flexible but weak.

The Prophetic Progression of the Ten Horned Kingdom

Main Scripture-Daniel Ch 7 vs 15-28: At this point we have seen scripture predicting the Ten Horned Kingdom...identification of four of the Ten Horns...the revealing of where the Anti-Christ shall come from and most notably have gained confidence in the power of God's Prophetic Word concerning prior fulfillment of the past kingdoms. In retrospect, one should ask the question...Who benefits most from these prophetic revelations? It certainly does not do the prior empires much good. However, let it be said that we would need the future to occur in order to decode the past. In other words, it is the future itself which unlocks the key to His Plan. Relish that thought for a moment and you have just a glimpse of His power!!!!Let us continue to pursue the prophetic word.

Let us examine Ch 7 vs 24 “And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise. And another shall rise after them, and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.” The general consensus is that all four horns will be part of the ten horns before the Anti-Christ arrive. Though I don’t deny the possibility, there is the chance of a slightly different scenario. I believe that only three of the revealed horns will be accepted by the European Common Market (ECM). The three nations are Egypt, Turkey and Greece.

We must remember the Anti-Christ will sign a treaty with Israel. Israel has little to do with the Ten Horn entity until after the beast (Anti-Christ) get control of the kingdom. Therefore there is a real potential for a peace treaty to be signed independent of ECM. Strong undercurrents are already supporting Syria as an Arab leader nation in negotiating peace with Israel. However, the beast will not arrive on the scene until the ten horn kingdom comes into existence. Each force is independent until the beast overcomes three of the horns, thereby forcing the others to give him there power also. Syria’s terrorist label and their aggressive past supports this observation.

Another point of interest is that the current ECM has many more nations (12) than the future ECM that I have predicted. It should be obvious that if four of the horns being revealed are Arab nations then the ECM will only have 6 or at the most 7 nations representing a “revived Roman empire”. Wisdom dictates that there will be a tremendous change in world government of a magnitude never before seen. The Lord is showing those who dare to consider His Word in operation and it is to His glory and His power that these things can be known.

We must recognize and accept the potential for change and the tensions that shall erupt due to those changes. For example, The United States and Soviet Union are both desperately hanging on to “old politics” tactics. They have dominated world opinion for almost 50 years and are now “both at the same time” in serious distress. Desert Storm has accelerated USA vulnerability and in a strange way brought a divided world together almost begging for a new world order.

In addition, the USSR's newly formed republics, Europe restructuring to facilitate single government policy including Germany's resurgence and just world wide civil unrest is creating eerie and endless possibilities. And there is always the potential for consolidation due to desperation. Look at all the mega mergers going on in America. I sense a similar phenomenon nation to nation. The world is entering the stage of the unknown and much must still occur before the beast is even to be revealed.

Daniel Ch 11:35-45 gives greater detail to the conquest of the beast, which includes him conquering even more countries. Michael the archangel, is the prince who defends Israel in the angelic realm. I no longer doubt this, for there must be some force which orchestrates accurate fulfillment of prophecy. Daniel Ch 10 further reveals to those who dare believe the angelic realm at war. This concludes references of the Ten Horns in the Book of Daniel.

The Mysteries of the Book of Revelations concerning the Beast and the Ten Horn Kingdom

Revelations Ch 10:1-11 provides more information on the beast and his kingdom. In addition to what we already know, is ten horns being supported by seven heads. Notice that verse 2 references the same symbolic figure found in the Book of Daniel. (Marvel at the fact that there is over 600 years separating these two books under very different conditions for Israel the nation.) Much of Rev 13:18 is self explanatory, however notice what happens in verse 11. It states "And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth and he had two horns like a lamb." Could this be referring to the false prophet of Israel...Israel's false messiah. The "Lamb" has always referred to Jesus (see Ch 5 of Revelation)...but here the small letter (l) for lamb is used. Also never has scripture described Jesus as a lamb with two horns or even one for that matter!

There is some interesting information on the horned kingdom in Ch 17 of the Book of Revelation that I would like to reveal. In verse 9 and 10, the seven heads are given two meanings. They are:

Verse 9- "seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth"...verse 18 tells us "the woman is also a great city, which reigneth over the kings." Question...What city is surrounded by seven mountains? Rome does and it is indeed a great city. Vatican city...a city in a city...headquarters for the Roman Catholic Church. Are we finding reference to this religion as the Mystery Babylon? Will the Ten Horns be headquartered in Rome though separate from the church? Here is one more surprise... The European Common Market is indeed headquartered in Rome! Strange coincidences strange indeed! More to be said about this in another issue.

Verse 10-seven heads are also described as “seven kings”. this is reference to all the Gentile nations which has dominated Israel. It is building upon the symbolic “Man of Metals” in Daniel Ch 2. There were five revealed from Daniel’s time to the end times. Two nations ruled over Israel prior to this time. This is the breakdown:

1. Egypt ..... fallen
2. Assyria ..... fallen
3. Babylon ..... fallen
4. Media-Persia ..... fallen
5. Greek Empire..... fallen
6. Roman Empire .....is (at the time wrote)
7. Ten Horns..... to come
8. Beast & Ten Horns ..... last to come

This concludes this series on the Beast and the Ten Horns. As you can see there is much that needs to be developed. So there does seem to be time yet...but it should be most clear the stage is indeed being prepared. There is simply to many potentials in this decade.

The very fact that a person such as myself have been given divine insights in this difficult subject is the very evidence of how close we are.

The Rapture, being an event that could happen any day has been a long anticipated occurrence. Unfortunately, few truly believe it considering even most within the Christian faith. And it’s this unbelief which will traumatize the saints who are left behind. The door will still be open but many if not all will be tried and suffering will be the norm. Those who come through whether by being a survivor after Armageddon or through a sacrificial death in the name of Jesus (Tribulation Saints) are who I think about most.

Let us not be like the Pharisees, all knowing in their religious pride. Their error should be our gain...consider it and be acceptable to the Lord. Whatever your doctrine or denomination, review it to be sure that it is the truth (biblically speaking). If you find it difficult to believe in the Power of the Lord as demonstrated in the Bible, I can assure you., the Power will not be of much assistance in your hour of need. For I feel that it is the Rapture itself which will aid tremendously in the acceleration of all seemingly impossible future events. Once you consider the rapture, does not all things become possible? I conclude with this one thought: "Faith is the substance of things hoped for the evidence of things not seen "...Hebrews Ch 11:1

For The Record

As an after thought on this day 23JUL92, I request of my readers to consider the dates of when my letters were written. The first page of each letter has such date and all letters took no more than three days to complete with the exception of the first letter which took 2 hours. For instance...first letter was written before Desert Storm (Aug 90) also 2nd and 3rd letter prophesied a peace treaty to come and such was not attempted until Sept 91 between Israel and the Arabs which is now media news with world emphasis. USSR did not disband until Jan 92 and weather catastrophes has intensified creating burdens. May these insights further support my calling and your being called. Thank you!

WHO IS MYSTERY BABYLON?

Scripture Analysis of ST. JOHN 21:15-25.

VERSE 15-17: ST. JOHN 18 reveals Peter's earlier denial of being with Christ during the trial, as Christ had prophesied Peter would do not once but 3 times. And so it was. Christ, after his resurrection, approaches Peter while they're fishing and asks Peter during mealtime, "Simon... lovest thou me?" 3 times and Peter responds favorably 3 times and then is given direction to "feed my sheep" 3 times also.

Is Jesus clearing Peter's earlier denial by having him confess his love 3 times and subsequently provide instructions for Peter to feed his sheep without guilt? Peter did in fact preach the gospel as proven by the 2 books written by him.1 & 2 PETER. He was also considered the leader of the disciples.

VERSE 18-19: Jesus reveals information to Peter about Peter himself. Peter always did what Peter wanted to do...however, it is clear that he has decided to walk according to Christ. Christ knew he would. "But when thou shalt be old" (a prediction in itself) "thou shalt stretch forth thy hands." Could Jesus be revealing to Peter the timing of his death and also that his death shall glorify God? Peter did in fact glorify God by requesting his crucifixion on the cross be upside down, for he was not worthy to die upright as Christ did. Peter's death occurred approximately 40 years later. However, notice that Christ reveals to Peter something else in verse 18. After his death... "and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not." History has confirmed Peter's walk in Christ and it must be recognized that Christ could be speaking prophetically considering Peter's death did not occur until 40 years later. Who is the "another" and why is Jesus revealing him to Peter?

VERSE 20-21: Peter immediately recalls the situation at the Last Supper when John asks the question of who shall betray thee (ST. JOHN 13:21-30 details this), however, this was related to Judas who had already hung himself. Peter shows to Jesus without identifying John but by implicating him by "turning about" in John's direction and asks Jesus, "What shall this man do?"

Could this be another example of Peter's impulsiveness thereby being confused and "thinks" of John also betraying him?

I believe Peter is on the right subject (betrayal) but is thinking in the past on the wrong person (John). After all, Christ is speaking future and Christ himself made no reference to John...that was Peter's mistake. Jesus attempts to correct Peter's false assumption in verse 22.

VERSE 22: "If I will that he tarry till I come...follow me?"

There is something being said here without saying it at all.

At this point, 2 facts are clear. First, our subject of concern is that betrayal shall occur and verse 18 also implies that it shall be as Peter would not have it. Second, history reveals that John never did betray Peter or Christ. He later wrote New Testament books as well. Therefore, this should acknowledge that Peter's implication of John was in error. Jesus is not the author of confusion...but could Peter be confused and it's Peter's assumption that Jesus is speaking of a man?

I believe that Christ is providing to future generations a betrayal to come in the name of Peter. The key is "till I come." This implies something unique which the apostles alluded to in verse 23 when they said, "that that disciple should not die." Could our Lord be revealing a spiritual being who certainly can tarry till I come...if I will? All men must die, therefore John could not possibly meet the condition "till I come." It's been almost 2000 years and counting. Could our Lord be warning us of a spiritual being to come in Peter's name and also is Christ exonerating Peter from any blame?

Conclusion

Again, can the future unlock the past? Who is “and another?” Time once again reveals the Power of the Word of the Lord. The “Angel of Light”... God’s Adversary. Is he the “and another”? History confirms that the Roman Catholic Church is founded on the name of Peter. However, Peter would be more than happy to tell all that he is not the founder of the Roman Catholic Church. Even the history books will reveal that it was the desire of the Roman Catholic Church to select Peter’s name. The line of the apostolic fathers that Catholicism claim is not a biblically recognized doctrine.

I have reviewed other scriptural interpretation on this part of ST. JOHN and have found them wanting. The Jews were often confused by the revelations Jesus revealed to them. The Jews asked all the questions exposing their ignorance while we the Gentiles received the answers without such a “public risk.” This is another example of the Root. It does not surprise me that Peter was confused. There is a tremendous amount of prophetic undercurrents throughout the Apostle’s Books. Would I have been any wiser in their time? I sincerely have my doubts.

A FALSE RELIGIOUS SYSTEM

REVELATIONS 17

Of all the chapters in the Book of REVELATIONS, it is chapter 17 that is the most heartbreaking to discuss. I do not desire its truths that our Lord reveals but I do accept them nonetheless. It is sad that such deception can overcome so many people throughout the generations.

The Book of REVELATIONS was written approximately 95 AD. The error that both the Jew and Gentile made against the sinless one Christ, sealed the fate of Man...First the Jew with the destruction of the Jewish Temple in 70 AD and their subsequent and eventual world wide dispersion and then...the Gentile evidenced by the Book of REVELATIONS. For there are unbelievers in both groups...if not in God then...in His Word!

Can we say that Christ more so than any man who ever lived on this planet, that due to his sinless nature throughout his trials and crucifixion was undeserving of such death?? And that if there is one who must judge the sins of mankind that it is He and He alone who is worthy! God has shown us his righteousness and that he will not and can not allow man in his sinful state a place in His Kingdom. For if one is permitted, then all must be permitted including God's real adversary...the first sinner who elected free will over God's Will...none other than Satan. If Satan could not defeat Christ in the flesh, he has absolutely no hope on Judgment Day.

The Adversary now works through deception...constantly and without mercy. He is called, “appearing” as an Angel of Light. I have asked...Why is he allowed to be so effective in his works? The answer is again one of simplicity...Adam chose the same thing Satan did and that was the use of Free Will also known as My Will and finally...I Will.

It is now so clear that the best will is the Will of the Creator. For it is His Will which knows what is best for the creation. And the Bible clearly reveals His Will while man desires free will. Can it be said that free will is the vehicle which permits sin to exist? Can one have free will and yet be sinless? Did not Christ himself accomplish this feat like none other!! God states, “we are all born sinners” and yes we are all born with free will also.

I believe the angelic realm has free will, however, the glory of God’s Power is so consuming that they elect without question...God’s Will...until a creation known as Lucifer spoke the words...I will (1 JOHN 3:4-10 and EZEKIEL 28:12-19). Man seems to have been created to allow the Adversary an opportunity to present his case. And God once again makes the most out of the least. God makes it so clear that Man in his current state has a beginning and an ending. Man, utilizing free will, seeks to contradict God’s conclusions and the Adversary steps in to assist Man’s use of his free will by Deception.

Mystery Babylon is the culmination of the most wide spread deception since the Ascension of Christ. It’s beginnings are remarkably revealed in ST. JOHN 21:15-25. It is last of the last gospel...the final words to Peter. Is it not John who wrote the Book of REVELATIONS and adding clarity to this “and another” perhaps clears himself? I am a firm believer that in some instances it requires the future to occur in order to know the past. Mystery Babylon is becoming less of a mystery and more of a fact. Let us measure the words of Truth.

CAN MYSTERY BABYLON BE REVEALED?

An Overview of Christianity:

Let's take a close look at what history has already provided us. It is my attempt to simply present before all, basic doctrinal practices that existed long before our generation ever was thought of, their development and provide a general understanding that while there are many doctrines, there is only one Truth and only one source for the Truth. Let it be known that the Bible supports doctrines but it does not support doctrine which deviates from the Bible. The Bible represents God's perspective and it is His perspective that I desire to reveal. May the Spirit of Truth be my Guide in this challenging subject. Shall we begin.

From the time of the apostles until 300 AD., Christianity spread through the Roman Empire in spite of frequent persecution. In 313, Constantine the Great granted religious toleration to the Christians. This period was marked also by the definition of Christian dogmas and by recognition of the supremacy of the bishop of Rome.

St. Linus is recorded as the first bishop of Rome after the death of Apostle Peter. The growth of papal authority was gradual. After the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 AD., churches throughout the Roman Empire began to look to the church of Rome for leadership. Since the Church was virtually the only civilizing and intellectual influence in the West during the Middle Ages, it became customary to refer spiritual and moral and even political issues to the pope.

Catholics believe their church is of divine origin. They believe Jesus Christ created his church when he said to Peter, “Thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church...” They also believe Christ guaranteed that Peter and his successors would be divinely preserved from error in preaching the truths entrusted to them. Thus, the pope can never be wrong when he speaks on faith and morally. The Catholics show special veneration for the Blessed Virgin Mary. They pray to her, and she intercedes with Christ for them.

Key Catholic Doctrine

1. The church is one in doctrine, authority, and worship.
2. The church is apostolic-descended in a direct line from the Apostle Peter-and is the only church from the time of the apostles.
3. It is catholic, or universal. Not only is it true to Christ’s commission to teach all nations, but also it-and it alone-has the full body of truth taught by Christ.
4. The church is holy. It carries Christ’s living message to the world. The church has a power that “helps” man to attain holiness.
5. The church ordains purgatory...a place or state of punishment wherein the souls of those who die in God’s grace may make satisfaction for past sins and so become fit for heaven.

Points to Ponder:

- a) While I believe the earliest intentions of the apostolic popes were to stay true to Peter’s teachings, it is most clear that such a pure following did not continue.
- b) Notice also how their doctrine gives a “person” divine control which also gives him “divine powers” over his subordinates.
- c) The longevity of the church is peculiar. Especially when we consider in the Book of DANIEL 2:40-43, the continued presence of the iron (Roman Empire) in the feet near the end times. If there is anything reminiscent of the old Roman Empire, is it not the city of Rome and its church... Roman Catholic?

- d) The glaring unbiblical doctrine of purgatory is in itself enough to reveal a false religious system. It is amazing that despite the obvious error more than half of Christians are Roman Catholics.
- e) Could the deception be that while they accept Christ's divinity, they overrule the biblical writers by "adding doctrine." I ask all...who truly benefits by this tactic and where is the Bible?
- f) Notice also how the Catholics "share" the divinity of Christ by praying to Mary and confessing their sins and receiving forgiveness to and from a priest and also acknowledging another man as "father." It is as if the attempt is to replace God and the Son. I certainly do not see this as glorifying our Creator and His Work!

The Protestant Branch...A Response

The term arose in Germany from the protest of the Reformation leaders against decisions of the Catholic majority around 1550 AD. The protest defended freedom of conscience and the rights of the minority. The Protestant Church became one of the three main divisions of Christianity, the others being the Roman Catholic and the Eastern Orthodox Branch.

Key Protestant Doctrine

1. The Bible as primary authority in matters of faith and practice. Conservative Protestant tend to interpret the Bible literally.
2. The "universal priesthood" of believers, in which all have access to God's grace without mediation of an ordained clergy.

3. Salvation and justification by God's grace through faith alone. God's grace not earned by good works as in Catholicism. And the belief that man has free will to accept or reject grace.
4. Does not believe in an institution founded upon the divine authority of the clergy.
5. The right for private judgment in religion.

Points to Ponder:

- a) It appears that Truth has a way of revealing itself after the deception is magnified. Protestant came to be due to a rejection of what Catholicism was.
- b) Notice the emphasis on God's Word...the Bible. And God's grace.
- c) The recognition that Christ is a Personal Savior to the individual and that salvation is not denominationally guaranteed.
- d) Let us be mindful that there are "problems" in this branch also. Much questionable doctrines have been so-called "inspired that is not of the Writings of the Apostles (The Bible). Be wary of them! The Bible is complete and the primary source of inspiration is "divine interpretation" of God's Word. And the purity of the inspiration is founded solely on the ministry of Christ and Christ alone.

SCRIPTURAL ANALYSIS OF REVELATIONS 17

Question #1 What is Mystery Babylon guilty of doing and who are the victims?

Verse 6 provides a most vivid answer. “She” was guilty of being drunken with the blood of the saints and the martyrs of Jesus. It is peculiar that there is 2 classes of the same kind of believers being referred to. Why the separation? The saints are those who are martyred during the yet to come tribulation period. However, the martyrs of Jesus provides an interesting clue as to the longevity of the crime “she” is guilty of. “She” seems to only be guilty since the beginning of the time of Christ, particularly since the early development of the Christian Church and throughout it’s history.

Literal Babylon has no impact here and history reveals that the best way to challenge a religion is to do it with another religion. History also reveals the Roman Empire and it’s church, the Roman Catholics, have been guilty of martyrdoms in many centuries and many lands upon those desiring the true Christian doctrine as written.

In verse 1, Jesus calls Mystery Babylon a great whore. In verses 3,4, and 6, John (the writer) simply calls her a woman. Why? The term “whore” is frequently used to symbolize a spiritual departure from God and His Truths by an individual, city, or nation. The Lord knows of this great departure from his Truths that is to come and forewarns all. But from John’s perspective, he sees a woman...a beautifully adorned woman. He admires her, not recognizing her deception. John emphasizes appearance as acceptance! As is so much the case even today. Two different “views” are revealed by our Lord...His and Man’s. That is why in verse 7 and the angel said, “Wherefore did thou marvel?”

In verses 2 and 4, “she” is guilty of another sin and that is...her acts of fornication. Verse 5 identifies her as a Mother of Harlots. The term “harlots” refers to the many branches which have sprung from her and have been as much apostate as her. Fornication indicates an act of spiritual deception applied to an individual before they are able to know the truth for themselves thereby causing the “kings” to grow under her and to adhere to her. As so often has been the case. Once a Catholic is he not always a Catholic simply by birth? Is he or she not tainted from the very beginning? A great way to assure membership, for the problem isn’t getting in but it’s how to get out!

THE ANGEL INTERPRETS.

In verse 7, the angel makes clear to John that he will “tell the mystery of the woman.” Let’s see what kind of clues the angel gives on the woman.

In verse 9, the angel tells us where the woman sits.in other words, where her location is. She rides the ten horned beast which their seven heads represent also seven mountains. Does this mean she is located where she is surrounded by 7 mountains? And here is wisdom...the city of Rome is indeed surrounded by 7 mountains. Check your encyclopedias please! But is the woman a city?

In verse 18, the angel makes clear the woman is also representative of a city...a great city. Rome is not obscure but is indeed a great city! The ten kings shall also be in this city. To date, the European Common Market is indeed headquartered there though the Ten Kings have not arrived in there final political structure.

I forewarn all that Rome is a respected power broker in the world today. Whether it supports political or religious issues, it’s opinions are broadcasted and published throughout the world. Please exercise caution concerning their viewpoints. I do not suggest a blanket statement of disagreement against their policies. Simply to weigh in the balance in light of these...alarming coincidences. Alarming indeed!!

In verse 15, the whore has a following of many nations, people, tongues and multitudes. And so the Roman Catholic Church does have such a diverse following...another coincidences. Verse 1 also states she sits upon “many waters.”

In verses 16-17, judgment is passed and the ten kings come against the religious system and destroys her.

It is remarkable that the actual location is given. The challenge in these discoveries is to believe what is literally being alluded to. At the time of the writings, Rome probably did not warrant such a profound judgment. But God knows the power of his adversary who is an “angel of light” and Man’s unwillingness to consider His Truths and His alone.

And here is wisdom: Literal Babylon (a religion based on idol worship, sorceries, witchcraft, astrology, etc.) predominated Man’s earlier beliefs. So after God made Truth known through Christ, Mystery Babylon became the predominate tool used by the Adversary. They both shall come to fruition again in these present times. I have seen evidence of Literal Babylon taking shape and it is most peculiar to see published articles coming from Rome concerning the opinions of a spiritual leader of a group called Chaldeans Catholic Rite based in Babylon of Iraq.

Yes...Babylon the city is being rebuilt at this moment. A peculiar link and perhaps a deadly one. Be forewarned! The final hour of life as we know it could be making a desperate plea for survival by the unbelievers. We who believe in spite of the trials will see the glorious coming of Jesus. God has no desire to destroy that which he created, but the unbelievers deny Him. So what is He to do when the time comes for our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ to rule? The stage is indeed being prepared...and the Adversary has nothing to lose...for he has lost already. Therefore, be strengthened, desiring the truth even if it hurts. For it will always save you from error...Be Forewarned!

TRUTH DEFINED AND REQUIRED...

THE BIBLE IS...TRUTH DEFINED!!

Jesus left 11 disciples to reveal his Work of Salvation to the world. Through divine inspiration issued by the Holy Spirit, 7 of his disciples wrote 12 of the New Testament books. They are now better known as the Apostles to Jesus Christ.

The Apostle Paul was commissioned separate from the disciples for the primary purpose of preaching to the Gentiles. Paul was an example of God taking the least likely person (as Saul of Tarsus, he was a Pharisee who hated and persecuted the followers of Christ) and using him to glorify the power and mercy of our Lord. How could an individual be so against Christ and after the encounter on the “road to Damascus” suddenly speak so eloquently for Him...writing more New Testament books than all the disciples combined.

I am convinced that only a direct command to fill Paul with the Holy Spirit could achieve such a dynamic and pure change. None of the writers had books to read and we must remember. most were fishermen. Their writings has withstood 2000 years of challenge and yet the words stand as Christ revealed them. God is truly showing His Power.

I say all this to drive home a point. There is indeed a purposeful containment of God’s Word. The book of REVELATIONS, written by John, Christ’s last living Apostle, does a splendid job of concluding God’s Word to Man. Therefore, on what basis do we get so many “other views” that is clearly not according to the Bible? Is it intentional or preference or simply desired ignorance better known as free will?

Let us measure Truth...Case in Point!

There is a verse which gives much insight into what supports Truth. Our court system is founded on this very principle. ST. MARK 14:56 states, “For many bare false witness against him (Jesus), but their witness agreed not together.” Much is said...let’s examine!

If a victim is accused by his assailants and under separate interrogation their testimonies do not agree, they lose credibility and the victim’s testimony is weighted as the truth. Now notice.

- a) Islam calls Jesus a prophet but no Son of God.
- b) Jehovah’s Witnesses call Jesus an Archangel.
- c) Roman Catholics equate Mary Immaculate equivalent to Jesus (downgrade).Note: The Holy Spirit our only intercessor!
- d) Mormons consider Jesus a son of God who did a great work but not The Son of God...Lord of Lord & King of Kings.

Do you see that they bare false witness for they do not agree but chose to believe what they desire regardless of Christ’s testimony. Therefore, do they not lose credibility and Christ the victim...His words stand tall as the truth? However, in their attempt to be legitimate, there is one telling observation. They all use the Bible as a starting point, THEN introduce their opinions as doctrine. Is it inspired or is it deception supported by preference (free will)? The adversary to God is indeed an “Angel of Light.” He establishes an apostolic line of fathers similar to the seed of David. Demands that he be called “father.” Has doctrine that has no biblical support. Yet his church is accepted and respected world wide. A deception that can only be defeated by Truth!

It is important to focus on the obvious which can be surprisingly overlooked when “What is Truth?” is the question. Let it be said that God Himself is the orchestrator of the Bible. Not one word is without His inspiration. All the writers of the New Testament are under the direct control of the Holy Spirit. You say where’s the proof?

The only writers of the New Testament were those who were direct witnesses of Jesus’s divine nature. Paul was the exception, however, the use of someone such as Paul adds tremendous credibility to all the writers. For no man so far removed from the original disciples and Christ Himself could have harmonized his writings with the other New Testament writers without divine intervention. In other words, God has used 8 witnesses and none...no not one...disagree with the other!

Is Truth Defined or is it Not?

In Conclusion

As a final word of caution, when you examine the detailed information provided by REVELATIONS 17 concerning Mystery Babylon, it is absolutely remarkable how clear the picture is made. The Roman Catholic Church with its erroneous doctrine has been founded on deception since its beginning. God clearly has a day set aside for their fall. All I can say at this point is that man has free will and must elect to judge doctrine and above all desire it if not insist on knowing the Truth. That is perhaps the most important function of the Bible and the main provision of the Holy Spirit. But you must ask the question so He can give the answer!

God desires “the meek” not so much the weak. The weak stand to follow in any direction calling themselves strong in their numbers but the meek will strive to use discretion. Character has a lot to do with how we walk. It is the Word of the Lord that the meek listens to...the world is measured against His Word. I forewarn all that doctrines do not always follow His Word. They may carry the Bible but do not fully examine it. They take out what they want but not what they truly need to assure the salvation of the soul.

In closing, I want to clarify my intentions concerning the Roman Catholic Church. That while it is a religious institution which deviates from the Bible, it is not the only one! Do not Islam, Hindu, Buddhism and countless others qualify also as a false religious system? However, the Catholic Church is the world’s largest, richest and most influential religious presence acknowledged on earth. It is peculiar that the church prays to and through Mary...a woman of which Mystery Babylon is so identified with. So many can be manipulated by “appearance”. Let me say this...I am sure that there are members within the church who seek Jesus and Jesus only and thus are saved. I pray this hope continuously! But let us remember that Our Lord is a Personal Savior not a denominational one. Therefore, we are saved by Faith and not by our Works. Christ has performed the Work and He himself said in JOHN 19:30, “It is finished.” Repent and Accept the Handiwork of the Lord...For Jesus is the Perfect One!

NOTE: I do write this Letter with reluctance and with speculation but nevertheless...moved by the Spirit of Truth. I seek to forewarn! AND PERSONALLY. “I would rather be wrong and live this life in ridicule, than be right and live in Heaven alone...knowing that I was afraid to tell you the Truth.” I have found His Amazing Grace ST. JOHN CH 16:13 AND 2 PETER CH 1:18-21

A NOTE OF THANKS...

I would like to give my personal thanks to all those who have taken their precious time to read my letters. I had no idea that I would write and I certainly had no idea I could be so blessed to write so convincingly as many of my readers have acknowledged. Let it be said that your praises are well received and have indeed been a part of my continued inspiration.

I am an imperfect vehicle used by a perfect vehicle...the Holy Spirit. I am convinced of His Presence and I hope that others are to be by the reading of my words. If Jehovah's Witnesses...Mormons...New Age and countless others can so openly preach things that are not of the Bible, why can't I try just as hard to preach the Bible. Have I not defined the Truth? I do pray to minimize my opinions to maximize the Spirit's. So therefore...how can I glory in my own writings. Let it be said that I do not! For the message is His and I am but a messenger. Called...Called to Reveal and to Forewarn based on Faith. Since the beginning of Time, has it not always been Faith and Faith alone. I have been blessed to see the results of faith and so I share so that all may see it also...as clear as the blue skies and as sure as the Bible in your hand.

When I wrote my first letter titled, "The Necessity of the Return of God's Chosen People," I had no intentions of writing another and another, etc. But it is clear that the Holy Spirit had other ideas. And So I was compelled to write as it is written in 1 Corinthians 9:16, "For thou I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel."

At this point, I now know that the Spirit desires from me 2 more writings concerning prophetic revelation. In total, that means 7 letters detailing prophetic framework for the Second Coming of the Christ. It is clear to me that these letters are written with the intent to be spoken. They are in essence...“preaching letters.” The beauty in them is their clarity. This allows the reader to address them to others based on faith alone. God seems to be excusing a lack of knowledge but He will never excuse lack of faith. This is the perplexing situation of the Tribulation Saints as our Lord prepares for Israel’s Promised Redemption.

Oh...Let us Hear the Voice of the Lord as He Restores His People!

Yes...Let us Acknowledge the Spirit of Truth, Call for Justice!

Indeed...Has He not Elected Israel for Our Sake! Prepare Ye the Way

...our Lord does Speak and I have Heard His Tone...

And I have Heard His Command!

As it is written in Isaiah 62:6 & 7

“I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the Lord, Keep not silence. And give Him no rest, till He establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.”

Indeed...I do Watch and cannot keep Silent...Amen!!!!!!

The Choice: Truth or Religion

When all is said and done. Let it be said that my main theme throughout these “letters of prophetic utterances” is that the True God (He who demonstrates Himself) is not a religion. Man has always had a “religion” of some form or another. Before Jesus, Man believed in idol worship and in many gods of which none were the same from culture to culture. The multiplicity of man-made gods is staggering when one looks at ancient history. From the hidden tribes of Africa to the Roman Empire, man attributes “someone else” for his being. God, in His infinite wisdom, used Israel to demonstrate Himself through. Let it be said that Israel failed God. But even this fact had to be proven...not to God Himself but to Man. A Personal Savior was promised from the Book of Genesis...before Israel existed. That Savior came but was He not rejected!!!

The result of that rejection produced blessings for all men. Yes...the error of the Jews aided God in demonstrating His Eternal existence to all men. The impact of Christ’s resurrection changed the course of the world overnight. In principle, Man had went from believing in many gods to belief in One God. Idolatry was struck down conclusively. It is Jesus and him alone who is responsible for such a phenomenon.

With Truth revealed and idolatry recognized for what it was, a new form of “religion” erupted. The best word to describe this new approach is known as doctrine. Doctrine defined is “that which is taught and put forth as truth.” For it is written in St. John 1:1, “In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God” and verse 10, “He was in the world.” He is the First Word and the Last Word! Let us remember that Jesus was prophesied to come and walk among men to fulfill the promises thereby legitimizing his authenticity. He is therefore better than religion ever could be...for He is The Only Truth.

Just like ancient man who had many gods. modern man has many doctrines. The guise of religious freedom is a deceptive one. Man is always accountable for his beliefs and confuses the right to accept or reject Christ as permission for electing other forms of religion. Man truly sinks his own ship...for this error hides the truth more than reveals it does it not?

When Jesus walked among his own. it was the Pharisees who believed that their oral law (interpretations of law by Rabbis a religious traditions Not recorded in the 5 books of Moses) was of equal importance with the inspired written law issued by God Himself. What actually blinded the Pharisees was their refusal in accepting the Word as the Word was given. Traditional practices had crept in and they fell prey to their own wisdom. For it is written in Proverbs 2:6, “The Lord giveth wisdom and out of His mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.”

There are more than 300 prophetic scriptures related to Christ’s First Coming and the Jews ignored every last one of them. I ask all Why??? For the purposes of this letter, the Spirit sums it up in one word...TRADITION!!! For it is written in Mark 7:8-9 & 13. “For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: And Jesus said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.”

Tradition Defined...That which is transmitted orally through successive generations without the aid of written memorials. It is also any belief, custom, or way of life which has its roots in one’s family or racial group. The most important part of the definition of tradition is that it is “oral transmission” by man NOT a written revelation from God. This distinction is most critical...for this is what separates Truth versus Religion...and this is what separates the Church of Christ from Churches. And it is tradition which is blinding Christianity as God demonstrates The Truth.

For the most part, we know what is truth...but I ask you this. Where is Truth? This is the greater question in our generation. In other words, as Christians, should we be asking the question that tradition itself has caused us to be blinded to? A very basic question, but perhaps once asked, we could begin the process of removing the blinders. For in the Bible, we do not find a nation called America...we do not find Asia. we do not find Africa nor Europe nor Russia...but we do indeed find. ISRAEL!!!

If “the Gentiles” never received the Bible, Christianity as well as Islam would never had been. Yet the Bible is written by the Jewish people by the authority of God Himself. All objective evidence and concepts would be unknown to men who sought spiritual discernment! It is alarming that just when Judaism is making a resurgence that elements of Christianity and Islam have the appearance of being “in agreement” when the issue is Israel. If we consider the restoration of Israel as God ordained (biblically stated) then it stands to reason that all other prophetic acts stand to be realized in a literal sense also. Let it be said that the question should not be, “Who’s side is God on?”. The question should be, “Who’s side are We really on...is it religion or is it Truth...which is the ultimate redemption of Israel as the Bible proclaims it?

In other words, Christianity itself, is so caught up in tradition (self-proclaimed doctrine) that Truth is not being acknowledged when God Himself reveals it openly and plainly for all men. Yes...Israel is the Truth and that is no religion. I indeed do see the jealousy. I see the envy...their hearts are indeed prepared to Boast!!!

I forewarn all...Never mind that the Jews may reinstate Judaism... Never mind their unbelief in Jesus...Never mind their zeal and pride or their lack of zeal for the Lord! For the judgment is the Lord’s! Woe, is there not also the unbelieving Gentiles who must be judged? I, being one who studies the Prophetic Word of the Lord, knows certainly that such was prophesied to be. And so it is written in Romans 11:18, “Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the Root, but the Root (Israel) thee.” Verse 25 continues, “For I would not, brethren, that ye should not be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in Your Own Conceits, that blindness in part has happened to Israel, Until the fullness of the Gentiles come in.”

“And So Israel Shall Be Saved: As It Is Written!” verse 26 AND MAY THIS BE WISDOM

Therefore, the Error shall be made...for every man see it right in his own eyes...But the Lord pondereth the heart. So I ask you the question...What and who shall Israel be saved from???

And Who Shall Be Their Savior?????

Why I See What I See!!!

After making numerous attempts at proclaiming the prophetic word to all kinds of people from various religious denominations, I began to understand why others do not see what I see. Some of the most staunch resistance has come from “church folks” who can’t seem to acknowledge the genuineness of prophecy. This lack of acknowledgement is primarily due to poor doctrinal insight and yes...traditions! Jesus made it clear to “Watch therefore”! I advise everyone to read Matthews 24:42-51 and Matthews 25:1-13. Notice that Jesus is warning 2 different groups. In chapter 24, Jesus is speaking to the Jews...about the Jews. In chapter 25, it is clear that He is speaking prophetically about the churches. Verse 10 gives us a clear indication of a “sudden disappearance of believers in Christ.” Verse 22 reveals the agony of those left behind. These and others who become believers after witnessing what is known as “the rapture” are indeed the tribulation saints.

I see “these things” not so much because I study prophecy but because I believe Jesus as the Son of the Living God. As an Agent of God Himself, His words will fulfill themselves to the very last letter. God is Absolute...it is Man who is Relative. If one chooses to believe only so much of the Bible, then God is Just in revealing only what you want to believe. I realize that prophecy has been a “mystery” to the church. However the veil must be lifted. If God provided prophetic information to the Jews during Jesus’ first appearance, do you think He would have the Church ignorant of his second coming? God is always fair...He does not change, unfortunately, neither does man learn!

For Clarity's Sake: What is a Prophet?

- a) Prophets are those who speak for God. See Acts 3:21, Hebrews 1:1
- b) They are primarily Preachers of Righteousness. The most genuine prophets do not honor the pride of men...For they know the ways of the Lord in a most unique way due to an extreme submissive role. And they play no favorites. 1 Corinthians 14:3 reveals their purpose for the church.
- c) The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. See 1 Corinthians 14:29-33. This means that it can be difficult for the church to discern what a prophet speaks since they know little about prophecy. However, this difficulty is somewhat diminished now that we have the written word in our possession, the Bible.
- d) We are told to covet prophecy. 1 Corinthians 14:39.

Prophet Defined-Men divinely called and inspired to deliver God's message, particularly to future events. This was the primary function of Old Testament prophets. In the New Testament, it refers to a person who has received a special spiritual gift enabling him to interpret or proclaim Truth, it does not necessarily involve the element of prediction. Their key calling is "to reveal." This means "to communicate or impart by supernatural means and to make known through divine inspiration something that was previously concealed." Revealed Theology means theology learned only by divine revelation.

I believe my writings reflect a "revealed theology" approach. For the events that I have come to know were through self study and prayer, and more prayer. The Holy Spirit does not require of us to hold a degree in ministry...but to seek and to believe based on Faith.

What makes a false prophet (self-proclaimed)? 1 John 4:1-3 requests the church to test the spirit of the prophet. Lack of confession publicly or in print, that Jesus is God in the flesh renders his message as not of the Holy Spirit. And only the Holy Spirit can reveal to us the Truth as biblically stated.

A False Prophet Exemplified

More often than not when the subject of prophets and their prophecies is brought into the conversations, it is what the infamous French physician-turned-prophet whose name is Nostradamus has predicted that even most “Christians” tend to listen to. Due to his popularity, I think it best that I should highlight his “credentials” that we might better discern the spirit of a true prophet vs a false prophet:

Excerpts From

A Critic’s Analysis “Nostradamus and his Nonsense” by James Randi.

“The year 1999, seven months, from the sky will come a great King of Terror: To bring to life the great King of the Mongols, before and after Mars to reign by good luck.”

Muddled or not, there it is: The fateful prediction from the most durable soothsayer of all times—the Renaissance prophet Nostradamus. To believers, it means the world will end in July, 1999. Caggy and careful never to be too precise, Nostradamus divined the future events of the entire world before his death at age 63 in 1566. Like all physicians, he had cross trained in astrology and eventually found it easier to prognosticate (do predictions). The critic discovered that Nostradamus often prophesied events that already had occurred, blanketing them in murky symbolism. The seer skirted the Inquisition by attributing his prophecies to God and created many of the tricks still in use today by foretellers. Yet close study finds his predictions, masked by smoke and mirrors, are open to any interpretation, finis!

I classify him as a false prophet...a soothsayer. Spiritually speaking, Nostradamus makes no proclamation of faith in Christ per 1 John 4:1-3. In my opinion, he is a tool of deception...used by the Deceiver. The biblical Prophets are who I hear...Jeremiah, Isaiah, Daniel, Zechariah, Malachi, Joel, Apostle Paul, and the Christ and there are many others. May this insight add clarity and secure thy faith in God Himself.

For the record, I classify myself as one “who works in the office of a prophet.” This means that I do not emphasize calling myself a prophet but am called to speak on the subject that the biblical prophets do speak.

After the Rapture...A Veil Lifted

Realizing that I have said little concerning the rapture.(for in a moment, in a twinkling of an eye...we which are alive and remain shall be caught up to meet the Lord in the air! See 1 Corinthians 15:50-58 and 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18) those who are left behind are Awakened. As one who believes that such an event will occur before the signing of the covenant with Israel, let it be known that this is one event that no man knows the Day. However, I do recommend Hal Lindsey’s book titled, “The Rapture” which can reveal much concerning this mystery doctrine as the scripture calls it.

My attempt at this point is to show the impact of such an event regardless of when the event occurs. We must realize that there is probably no greater event prior to the Second Coming which will clearly and unquestionably demonstrate the Presence of God Himself. And I feel that this is critical to giving Hope to the tribulation saints. The saints represents anyone, regardless of their prior spiritual beliefs, who converts and accepts Jesus as the Son of God during the tribulation period.

Yes...A Veil is indeed Lifted. A mystery is no mystery any longer. The point is...could more people actually be saved by a pre-tribulation rapture than at any other time? In my opinion...Yes! Does not the Book of Revelations become a spiritual guide which is much easier to understand for those who are living it? Does not the Rapture shatter to pieces all tradition and false doctrine that has crept into Christianity? Indeed it does! They will know their error and respond accordingly. The question will then be asked by the Lord.” As my Son has died for you, are you willing to die for Him?” What the saint really proves to God is that he believes Christ does indeed Live! However, the sacrificial death represents their final testimony to that. It is the evidence of Faith!

Book of Revelations:

Letters to the Churches

Chapters 1-4: In principle, Jesus reveals the spiritual conditions of the various Churches throughout the Church Age. Remnants of each abound today. The last church, Laodiceans, scholars have concluded represent the spiritual state of Christianity in our generation. It is indeed so accurate (See Chapter 3:14-22). Let us strengthen ourselves so that we may indeed overcome.

Chapter 6:9-11: The first Heavenly Cry of the saints is revealed. These are those who have been martyred after the rapture up to the opening of the fifth seal. This seal represents the mass persecutions against those who believe in God. Refusal to accept the mark of the beast acts as way to conclusively separate the Wheat from the Tares. And so it is written that they are reserved for judgment. And Jude 1:19, "These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit." Those who buy the mark.

Chapter 7:9-17: The separation is complete at the end of the great tribulation as verse 14 reveals. Verse 15-17 shows their blessings being received and notice who they serve...God Himself. But also notice who feeds them. Is it not the Lamb, Jesus. There is a distinction here. The great tribulation is identified as beginning in the middle of the Seventieth Week of Daniel and continues for the last 3 1/2 years of the "week." How can the rapture occur during the "week" and both groups have the same title tribulation saints? They also appear to be more align with God though blessed with Christ.

Chapter 12:11: Reveals how the saints overcome the anti-christ by not accepting him even unto their death.

Chapter 13:7-10, 14:11-13: Just what is the patience of the saints? The message here seems to be that he who resist the antichrist with the sword shall die by the sword. He delivers his soul to hell since he did not willingly accept the condition of a sacrificial death in the name of Jesus. He therefore did not truly overcome. Is this not indeed faith and patience? Did not Christ willingly die for us?

Chapter 20:4: “And I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus.” As gruesome as this method may seem this is what it accomplishes: there is no doubt in my mind that the anti-christ will generate more fear on modern society by using such an archaic method of persecution. But there is one advantage from the Lord’s point of view. It is done in a twinkling of an eye and therefore it is painless. It’s the thought that hurts. Look up and believe now, so that you may be where he is!

And May This Be Wisdom.

These things must be for the perfecting of the saints and to condemn those in their unbelief that they may be reserved for that great day of judgment in the Valley of Jehosaphat where they go to destroy Israel... the only nation on earth that shall call for a Savior!

Thus Israel’s Promised Redemption. at last.

“For the Israelites will live many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred stones, without ephod or idol. Afterward the Israelites will return and seek the Lord their God and David their king. They will come trembling to the Lord and to his blessings in the last days.” HOSEA Ch 3:4-5

Scripture declares in HOSEA Ch 14:9 “Who is wise? He will realize these things. Who is discerning? He will understand them. The ways of the Lord are right; the righteous walk in them, but the rebellious stumble in them.”

ROMANS CH 11:26

And so All Israel Shall Be Saved: As It Is Written.”

(And where is it written?? It is written in the Old Testament)

And here is wisdom: As one man, Jesus, tested the Nation of Israel.
So shall such nation test the World. For it is not so much who is right but who is the least wrong! His Grace Abounds...Prepare ye the Way!

There is a rule in prophetic analysis that goes like this:

If what you read in the scriptures have not happened yet. That don't mean it won't!

The Calling!

Let us listen to the Voice of the Lord speak to Israel.

Ezekiel 34:12, "As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day." Ezekiel 34:22-23, "Therefore, will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle. And I will set up one shepherd over them." Ezekiel 34:5-6, "And they were scattered, because there is no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered...yea, my flock were scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them."

Never in the past have they been upon “All the earth”. But they are now!

Joel 1:14: “Sanctify ye a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the Lord your God and cry unto the Lord.” Joel 2:17-18, “Let the priests. weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God? Then will the Lord be jealous for his land, and pity his people.

Micah 4:6: “In that day, saith the Lord, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted. And I will make her that halteth a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation.” Micah 5:7-8, “And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people as dew from the Lord, as the showers upon the grass...And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst.” Micah 7:16, “The nations shall see and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf.”

Isaiah 11:10-12 “In that day the Root of Jesse will stand as a banner of the peoples; the nations will rally to Him, and his place of rest will be glorious. In that day the Lord will reach out his hand a second time to reclaim his remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, Egypt, from Cush, from Elam, from Babylonia, from Hamath and from the islands of the sea. He will raise a banner for the nations and gather the exiles of Israel; he will assemble the scattered people of Judah from the four quarters of the earth.”

An example of Israel’s error against Jesus and their subsequent dispersal and yet an eventual return.

Micah 5:1-3: “Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek. But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah (referring to Jesus who later was indeed born in Bethlehem and Israel did smite him), though thou be little among the thousands of Judah (Jesus’ genealogy is from the tribe of Judah), yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose going forth have been from of old, from everlasting. Therefore, will he give them up (were they not dispersed), until the time that she travaileth hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel (restoration).

Analysis...

Let us realize that the prophet Micah wrote these words approximately 720 BC. This is an example of the vastness of time it can take for certain events to be fulfilled. And notice how the certainty of events generate a reaction. For every bit of it was prophetic and all has occurred, right on up to our time. The amount of time used to fulfill the events is beyond human control yet man uses his free will in making them come true. Clearly this reveals that when man uses his own knowledge ignoring the very words God forewarned him about...he fails God. God Himself is cleared of setting man up as a result. There are numerous prophetic scriptures revealing this “all knowing” phenomenon. In essence, God is showing Man with uncanny subtleness that God’s Will is supremely superior to the use of free will and most certainly the “I Will.” His love is demonstrated despite our errors. Israel has been his tool for just this purpose. At the appointed time, I personally, want to stand before Him and glory in His Presence. This I do pray! I now know why we need Jesus yes indeed!

Jesus Forewarns the Jews of Anti-Semitism

Matthews 24:1-9: “And ye shall hear wars and rumors of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, pestilences, and earthquakes in diverse places. All these are the beginning of sorrows. Then shall they deliver you (Jews) up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name’s sake.”

God’s Mission to restore Israel will cause World Strife.

Zechariah 12:1-3: “Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah (interchangeable with Israel) and Jerusalem. And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all the people.”

A Purpose for which God shall use Israel for...Revealed!

Malachi 3:18: “Then shall ye return (Israel), and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.”

Yes...I have searched for His Wisdom and He has given it. I could go on and on revealing these types of unusual writings. Some think that the Old Testament is a closed book...Let it be said that the restoration of Israel has opened it up. Yes...the true colors of an individual can be exposed not so much by who they are with but who they may be against! This is the heart of my forewarning.

JUDGEMENT ASSURED

Daniel 12:1: “And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great (angelic) prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered.”

Micah 4:11-12: “Now also many nations are gathered against thee that say. Let her (Israel) be defiled and let our eye look upon Zion. But they know not the thoughts of the Lord, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as sheaves into the floor.”

Zephaniah 3:8: “Therefore, wait ye upon me, saith the Lord, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.”

Zechariah 8:13: “And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel: so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing, fear not.” See also Chapters 12-14.

Ezekiel 38:16, 39:2: “And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land: It shall be in the Latter Days, and I will bring thee against my land that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog before their eyes.” (The Book of Daniel identifies the conquest of the Anti-Christ as he gains in power. However, the Book of Ezekiel reveals the Battle of Armageddon (Chapter 38-39.) Could Gog be his new designation, after attaining world dominance; even the land of the uttermost north which scholars conclude is the now disbanded USSR? Could Gog be the Anti-Christ at the peak of his satanic rule over Earth? God changed names and used additional names to identify and further clarify biblical characters many times in scripture.) And verse 39:2 reads, “And I will turn thee back and leave but the sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come up from the north parts and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel.”

...And in the New Testament, Jesus answers the Jews question of when...Luke 21: 25-58: “And there shall be signs in the sun, moon, and stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; Men’s hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the power of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. And when these things come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your (Israel’s) redemption draweth near.” This is the great mystery revealed...Our Lord is Savior to the Gentiles but can He not also be realized as the Messiah to the Jews...at last???

The Battle Location

Joel 3: “I will gather all nations, and will bring them down into the Valley of Jehosaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted the land...Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles. Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the mighty men of war draw near; let them come up...Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the Day of the Lord is near in the valley of decision.”

The element of surprise is ever present as He states so emphatically. “And they shall know that it is I, the Lord...who have spoken it!”

Oh Perhaps...Our Nuclear Arsenal that we are so proud of will someday make the Grace of God of none effect and God will have no choice but to make Himself known to the unbeliever...It is quite clear that His Word is written despite our unbelief and His Foreknowledge is evident that we might know that there is a God and a merciful one indeed. Be Forewarned!!!!

IN CONCLUSION. “Strange Coincidences”

I have revealed only a sampling of Scriptures related to an event that has never occurred in Israel’s history. But the appearing of Jesus as a messiah is beyond human comprehension. How can Man demand a person to be sinless when he himself is not? How can words of the Scriptures cross Time and though written by men be from the knowledge of men? I find even the term “many nations” peculiar in itself. No time in the past best meets that criteria except the present. With the exception of the Exodus, Israel has never been truly saved by such a glorifying event. Another coincidence is that for the very first time in Man’s development, he holds his own destiny. He has never been able to destroy himself but with the advent of nuclear weapons...he can now! Our environment is being fractured without the use of such weapons already.

Be Forewarned...God is indeed holding back Man from destruction. As long as there are those who continue to proclaim the name of Jesus, God will postpone his wrath. The subject of God is in the news constantly but I do notice a vacuum concerning His Work...Jesus. It is a subtle absence, an eerie blank. For it is written in 1 John 5:10, “He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.” The rapture ends God’s restraint, then all must be fulfilled. A veil shall be lifted when the rapture proclaims itself to be what it must be. An ending and a beginning all wrapped up into one act. The tribulation saints are those who come to know the truth that they so refused to accept as a result of the redemption of Israel...And so they shall be saved...as it is written. Stand Back and Pray!!

Micah 7:20 “Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto from the days of old.”

And Here is Wisdom: In the name of religion many will be more against God than for Him. For the Truth is Israel, and God Himself shall proclaim it so! We are so close...therefore, do not yield to the Delusion that is to come. For it’s purpose is to align all unbelievers that they may be judged due to their unbelief concerning Israel. So shall the Truth of Jacob be performed as promised as it is written. As the Jew...so is the Gentile! Thus, it is written, “And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.”

What should be obvious...obviously is not!

In closing, it is indeed a mystery when the very evidence that there is a God (Israel’s Restoration) is resisted and even despised by those who profess a belief in God...a mystery indeed. The Adversarial One...an angel “appearing as a light”...the accuser of the brethren...who walketh to and fro, yea up and down upon All the earth. A deceiver of men and yes, some men prefer his way by their election of free will. I am indeed blessed to see an ending to these things and a beginning of a new and eternal blessing. Let the Bible be our Anchor in the midst of the Storm... for a storm there must be to try our faith. To be found worthy and blameless so that we may partake of the glory that most assuredly must come. When all is said and done, I can only but save myself. Therefore, by the reading of my words and the preaching of the gospel may you elect to do the same for yourself. For the Prince of Peace cometh to put down all rebellion in those men who so desire of it. Accept Him as your Personal Savior and receive of the Promises Foretold...I have heard and do submit...AMEN!

LETTER VII

Second Week of July, 1991

THE CHRIST AND HIS GLORIOUS APPEARANCE

And So It Is Written, “And I will put enmity between thee (the seed of the serpent which symbolizes the deceiver who used the serpent) and the woman, and thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head and thou shalt bruise thy heel” (Genesis 3:14-15). Genealogy requires all children to follow the seed of man but the Lord’s reference to the seed of woman implies that such an enmity shall not be brought about by a child fathered by men.

And so it was...a divine birth...a virgin birth, the only such birth. Is it not written in St. Luke 1:35, “The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the Power of the Highest shall be called the Son of God.” And was not the enmity established as it is written in St. Matthews 2:13, “.for king Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.” He was so desperate that he slew all children less than two years old in Bethlehem.

It is unbelievable that an old king could be so threatened by a newborn child. I have learned from the Spirit of Truth that such is not so much the heart of man but the direct hand of The Adversary seeking to invalidate the mission of God in providing a Savior for Man. And Jesus indeed had his “heel bruised.” He was struck down but His resurrection makes it so very clear that he did not stay down!

Though the event was not recorded until the time of Moses, the words were spoken at the time of the Fall of Adam in the Garden. Scholars date the time of Adam at approximately 4004 BC by using genealogical references given in the Bible. Yes...the Bible does a superior job of dating itself. Considering this, therefore it took 4000 years for the seed of woman to come and then have his “heel bruised.” That is truly incomprehensible by the human mind...but did it not occur as it was written nevertheless?

Genesis 3:15 is the first reference to a savior in the Bible. It is also the oldest unfulfilled scripture, for there is yet the fulfillment of “and it shall bruise thy head” to be accomplished. The Bible makes it clear just how that will be performed. A 2000 year wait for Christ’s Return can be understood when one considers the eternal nature of God. There are times when I recognize the Grace of God as simply one phenomenon and that is Time!

A very good friend of mine defined time as distance. I do see his point, for without movement, time becomes irrelevant. Measuring distance qualifies Time and gives to it...its substance. Few people consider the impact of time (dates) when they study the Bible. Time is the very thing which differentiates us from God. He is eternal...we are not.

Sin is the cause of such separation brought about by the offence of Adam. This separation is much better known as death...both in the flesh and in the spirit. Yes, even the spirit is separated from God IF certain conditions are not met in this life for hell is where heaven is not. God foreknew that man would need a savior greater than man himself for those who would desire to see the God that Is. Let it be said that God is not going to lower his standards for us. For it is far better for us to be elevated to His Ideals...and I can’t blame Him one bit.

Yes...Israel failed thinking obeisance of the Law was enough. For man maybe it was...but for God it was not. God’s criteria is Higher. It is more than obeisance of the Law...it is also a heart without Sin. Man never could accomplish that feat. So God birthed Himself among men to demonstrate a sinless way. And we all know what the Law of Man did to the Sinless One. Christ was entitled to strike back but He did not lest He sin and invalidate the very purpose for which He came.

And so it is written in Romans 5:18-19: “Therefore, as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation, even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life. For as by one man’s disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.”

Man indeed showed to himself the true nature of his character. Innocent men have been put to death before but one without sin presents a greater injustice. God states “He foreknew” the errors the Jews would make. Then why did He continue with it? He continued for the pure love of His creation...Mankind! However, no matter how much love God had for us, His Righteousness could not be lowered to compensate for Man’s error...Sin which is disobedience.

The necessity of a substitute who would not sin in order to save himself became reality. Jesus paid that price and the only reason he succeeded was because he was of God Himself. All his miracles were performed to reveal to us the Kingdom of God and in the process...defeat the Adversary. Remember, we would not even know that there even was an adversary without the sinless offering of Christ revealing him.

A sinless man found guilty...the Law ending in failure. And now the Messiah is justified, as witnessed by his resurrection, at the appointed time to make Amends. In all honesty, don’t you think He is entitled to Judge? It saddens me how we hear mankind call out for justice when he has been treated unfairly yet as Christians we hear not the Call of the Lord for His Son to fulfill the “bruising of thy head.” Yes...a mortal wound to Satan so that Man may finally live the peace God so desired of him from the beginning.

Do We Not Know His Right To Judge? For is it not written:

Romans 2:16: “In that day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel.”

God accomplishes much through Jesus.

1. He reveals man’s inability to measure righteousness using the Law.
2. He reveals the nature of Himself.
3. He sacrifices Himself for sinners.
4. In spite of Man’s error against Him he offers salvation to one and to all for their belief in Him as the Son of God.
5. He reveals to Man his character fault.sin.
6. He defeats his adversary by refusing to sin unto death. Satan’s error in the heavens was pride...which is a sin. Christ dying sinless in the flesh was the key to Satan's defeat. If Satan could not defeat Christ on earth...he is doomed in the heavens. He will be allowed to fight, symbolizing earth struggle at the time of Christ's return but his fate is determined.

7. Establishes for Earth a New Ruler...Prince of Peace...Jesus!
8. He permits man to condemn himself in his unbelief and when the time for judgment has come...Man will know his error.
9. He demonstrates the power of Love and Faith...and solidifies to Man what Truth is.
10. He reveals victory over Death through the Resurrection.

God uses the very least possible...one man...to accomplish an endless message to Man concerning His Divine Purpose. I now know the hidden meaning in the mustard seed parable used to describe the Kingdom of God. Man has his hope planted in one seed...in one resurrection...in one act of salvation (See Mark 4:30-32). The Second Coming of Christ is the sprouting of that seed...in full bloom overcoming all things on the earth. So that all things will be better...better indeed!

Purpose of the 70th Week of Daniel

I am sure after knowing what will happen that the question of why must it happen enters our mind. I have discovered that when I accept God's perspective concerning what will happen, I am instinctually led to ask Him. Why? And He provides the heavenly answer to earthly problems. I ask Him why an Anti-Christ...why the tribulation saints...why is only 1/3 of Israel saved during this final "week"...and why is death so prevalent throughout the 7 year period????? It is searching Him out daily and with much prayer that has given me divine insight into these sensitive and yet provoking questions.

For the question of why is what the Holy Spirit is always prepared to answer. He tells me that "the why of it" indicates that the answer will be heard and acknowledged by the receiver. He speaks according to our desire to know. My favorite scripture that has guided me along this path is found in St. John 16:13 “How be it, when He, the Spirit of Truth is come, He will guide you into all the truth: for He shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever He shall hear, that is what He shall speak. And He will show you things to come.”

In essence it means, if you fear the question, you stand never to receive the answer and the answer is only as good as the question you ask. Everything I received...I did indeed ask for. The answers I received concerning some of the most perplexing paradoxes in His prophetic word can be difficult to discern. If it is for me I know it is for many of my readers as well. Therefore, let me reveal just a sampling of some “why’s.” And may it culminate in the Second Coming of our Lord and Savior for both the Jew...and the Gentile who do believeth in His name.

Peace and Safety A Paradox

It is written in 1 Thessalonians 5:1-3, “But of the time and seasons, ye have no need that I write to you. For yourselves know perfectly that the Day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. For when they shall say, Peace and Safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them... and they shall not escape.” When we look at current world distress most people will conclude that the conflict between Israel and the Arabs is the most potentially dangerous conflict. Many feel it could actually ignite into a World War. As a result, it is always a politically delicate subject. There are many paradoxical situations in the Middle East and if one tries to determine why based on what I call “the human realm,” the answer can and will be quite different than in the “spiritual realm.”

I no longer ask why are they at each others throats but what does God accomplish despite their hatred? My third letter, “The Paradox of the 70th Week,” explains in detail this very phenomenon.

The Day of the Lord appears to be parallel to when they say peace and safety. Then there is sudden destruction. What would make the world say peace and safety unless there was a real potential threat? And why does the achievement of it render God’s wrath? The Spirit reveals that the answer is based on the conditions by which the peace is agreed upon. In essence, for a peace treaty to be signed, concessions will have to be made. These concessions will indeed have something to say about Man's belief in God and or the Bible.

The majority of Jews in Israel are still in unbelief about Jesus and even God Himself. And are not the majority of Gentiles in the world also in unbelief concerning God and His Son? Therefore, when the issue of peace is discussed, we must be acutely aware of not "who" is doing the negotiating but "what" is being negotiated. It is almost as if peace can never be reached as long as Israel is considered as the Promised Land. This is a subtle statement but a very powerful one indeed. Unbelievers seem to be caught in a vise on all sides. And they are! The Arabs and the Jews appear to use a god to justify their own purpose, a common practice among us all! It is written that Israel shall put their trust in Man once again. A signed peace treaty reflects their unbelief not only in Jesus (nationally, this is their stance currently) but also in God. Remember, there is always the remnant in Israel that will be saved when their eyes are opened. Therefore, Israel will be represented by "the false prophet." He will seem to be the messiah the Jews have been waiting for all along.

It is written that "he" shall make a covenant with Israel. This "he" is the Anti-Christ and he will represent the Arab's interest and I believe he will be an Arab. For the record, let's just say he will be like none other the world have ever known. His greatest achievement, when he comes, will be the success of a formal peace agreement with Israel.

The momentum is building up already. I believe many leaders throughout the world will offer their solutions but all will come up short until he arrives. He will be bold enough to discredit Christ publicly and receive worldwide support. Be forewarned, that it is the Terms of Conditions that initiate the Day of the Lord. The individual who solicit such terms will quickly become obvious to the churches. Many leaders around the globe do acknowledge their religious beliefs but few, if any, will publicly deny the deity of Christ...and that's the difference!

The Abomination of Desolation

Jesus spoke in Matthews 24:15, "When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (who so readeth, let him understand)." Daniel 9:27 reads,

“...and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice...to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate.” This will occur in the middle of the 7 year period. For the last 3 1/2 years of this period is called the Great Tribulation. Jesus reveals this designation himself in Matthews 24:21. The abomination is described in 2 Thessalonians 2:4, “Who opposeth and exalted himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he is as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.”

In the Book of Revelations 13:5-18 it is written, “.and power was given unto him (Anti-Christ) to continue forty and two months.” Clearly this is the beginning of the second half of the 7 year period and he has even more power. His spiritual deception described in the above Thessalonians verse is further supported by his physical act described in Revelations 13:15 where it is written, “And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.” This is the Abomination of Desolation spoken of...an act of desecration!

It is clear that the Jewish temple must be rebuilt to fulfill this act. To date, no such temple stands. But it is possible that as a condition of peace the Jews are allowed to build one without interference from the Arabs who despise such a project. I have a feeling that the issue of rebuilding the Temple will create worldwide “interest and tension.” It’s amazing how certain unbelievers so vehemently reject incidents that are actually fulfilling biblical prophecy. It is almost as if they know but are intent on preventing it irregardless of what God has revealed. The satanic forces are indeed quite aware and do they not show themselves and their work. But God will prevail so I forewarn!

Purpose of Anti-Christ.

God makes it clear that Satan is the ruler of this world but only for a time...thanks to Jesus. Through our free will we elect to accept Christ, however the Bible makes it clear that we are accountable for our rejection of Him as well. It is written in 2 Thessalonians 2:9-12, “Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned who believe not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.” I have no idea what this “strong delusion” could be but I do believe that it will be so obvious as not being of God that the wicked will love it. It is no doubt in my mind that the Anti-Christ will lead them to accept it. Those who refuse to believe such a delusion as valid will be exposed and our faith will be tried.

The mark of the Anti-Christ separates the field and prepares the harvest for reaping. The Book of Revelations speaks painfully clear to those who accept the mark (See Chapter 14:9-20). God is allowing us through the use of our free will to elect our choice. It should become clear that God actually restrains Satan in all that he is allowed to do so that things may be achieved for a greater purpose. When all is said and done God did not have to reveal these things. Let it be said that it is always better to know than to be ignorant...for His instruction has indeed strengthened me and may it do the same for you!

The Beginning of the End.

In the final analysis, when I consider the magnitude of such an awesome conclusion to Man, I cry. There are approximately 5 billion people on this glorious planet of every shape, size, color, temperament in every part of the globe. All from the seed of Adam. It is the varieties of men that has made life challenging yet heartbreaking. We all want a leader who can heal us of our wounds. Provide us our needs. Perform justice when required. There is a civil order among men no matter who they are or where they may be.

They must have a king...a president...a ruler...a leader. Even if he favors them not man must have Someone.

With all the races, ethnics, cultures, political and finally religious differences it will be quite a feat to make all men see eye to eye in principal. But this is exactly what the Anti-Christ will be able to perform. There will be few, if any, barriers among men as the beast demonstrate himself. Simply put, all unbelievers with their many differing beliefs will be made to believe in one. For the real enemy in their hearts is the Truth, which is

The Christ. The many turmoil, from civil unrest to weather catastrophes are placing a heavy burden upon our leaders throughout the world. As world distress increases day by day, men will come together in a new world order seeking a solution to appease everyone. Their ideals will be sweeter than mom's apple pie but not even mom can make a good apple pie with rotten fruit!!

Therefore, the Lord will let them have their day and in their unbelief He shall give them a leader. A leader they do want for to continue in their sins. Opportunity will be lost to them as they condemn themselves. He shall lead the Ten Horns that are also known as the Ten Nations and the book of Daniel classifies them also as Ten Toes. Daniel 2:40-43 identifies their mix as part iron and part clay. Knowing that Syria shall settle with Israel and the Anti-Christ shall be its leader and with four of the horns revealed the other 3 being Egypt, Greece, and Turkey. Therefore, can we say that the Ten Horned Kingdom will be a European and Arab Alliance. Strange bedfellows indeed as iron is to clay!

AND THUS IT IS WRITTEN IN REVELATION CH 13:5-8

“The beast (Anti-christ) was given a mouth to utter proud words and blasphemies and to exercise his authority for 42 months. He opened his mouth to blaspheme God, and to slander his name and his dwelling place and those who live in heaven. He was given power to make war with the saints and to conquer them. And he was given authority over every tribe, people, language and nation. All inhabitants of the earth will worship the beast.” (New International Version)

THE SECOND COMING The World is Judged by a Savior

The Olivet Discourse-Matthews 24, Mark 13, and Luke 21: Jesus reveals “as a prophet,” information detailing his return. It is most unusual and certainly noteworthy that He connects his return with the end of the world. This is another one of those strange coincidences... an eerie connection. Even during World War II, Man could not destroy himself or his planet until the advent of nuclear weapons. Man can destroy this planet 10 times over in this generation...that's a first. I advise all to read each of these discourses and become familiar with Jesus as a prophet. There is a composite of divine information provided in them. Let it be said that Jesus is very specific as he answers the question the Jews ask. There is no mystery to His words so I'll let them speak for themselves. But for clarity's sake, I do have a few comments: (All verses from Matthews 24)

1. Remember who is asking the questions...the Jews! This is an important distinction to keep in mind lest we confuse ourselves. Christ is speaking "through" the Jews about the world in general with a great deal of the scripture for just the Jews. For example, verses 15-22 are events in Jerusalem and probably all of Israel. Christ is warning them of a great distress to come like none other before.
2. It is amazing that I see other religions recognize Christ as a prophet more than Christian churches themselves. Islam is famous for declaring such, however there is one problem... from their point of view that's all he was. They downplay his virgin birth...let us not do the same. Verse 23-28 warns about false christs and false prophets. Heed His Warning. The churches need to introduce Jesus as a prophet considering all we do see. I think a most significant barrier to the churches is an unwillingness to preach Jesus' Jewish ancestry and when they do they treat the relationship as forever severed. But the Lord does indeed pondereth the heart. Hear His prophetic message!
3. It is relatively sound to conclude that from verse 5-31 represent the 7 year tribulation period. I can already "see" the world entering an agitated and distressful mind set. I forewarn all that such is going to literally increase to an almost uncontrollable feeling of desperation. As a world mass of unbelievers watch their world go through these prophetic changes, their reaction will be anger. Israel will eventually be considered the "problem."

These will indeed be those. terrible times. Only those anchored in truth will have discernment!

4. Verse 42 “Watch therefore”. We most definitely are in a most challenging period. This is a transition generation! Churches are not considering the literal interpretation of the Bible and are blinding themselves by their symbolic approach. A literal God speaks literally. If we, in our stubbornness, refuse to change let us remember the plight of Israel...let us remember them well.

They serve as an example in their failure to recognize Jesus when He first came. Therefore, we have even a lesser excuse. We see the signs therefore let us receive the prophetic message which is the Truth as God Himself has performed it no matter the bitterness thereof. I know that Truth is sweet to the receiver of the message but can be bitter to those who I reveal it to.

And Consider This.

Concerning the Seven Letters addressing the Seven Churches in the Book of Revelation, Jesus judges the churches by their “works” but commands them to “repent.” He forewarns each church of unique trials to come and then speaks to the individual who overcomes and what his reward will be. I believe that Christ is writing to religious people who is in the Lord’s House but have been found in need of repentance at the time of the Rapture despite their “works.” For the just shall live by faith and what is faith without hope. And what should be the hope of the Church?? The Apostles hope proclaim of his return and yet so do I, the question is do you????

The Parables of Harvest

Parable of the Wheat and the Tares...Matthew 13:24-30. Verse 30 reads, “Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers Gather ye together first the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.” After the Jews asked the meaning of this parable, Jesus answers in verse 38-40, “The field is the world: the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one. The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.”

The Parable of the Sheep and the Goats...Matthews 25:31-46. Verse 31 reads, “When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: And before Him shall be gathered all nations: and He shall separate them, one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats: And he set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left”...Verse 46 concludes, “And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.”

Even after the Battle of Armageddon there will be survivors. Ezekiel 39:2 reveals that 1/6 will be left standing. It is clear that there will be men alive that yet must be judged. And those that are his sheep indeed enter into the Millennial Kingdom of a thousand years rule under Christ. These parables which have often been treated as symbolic have an unerring potential to be very literal as well. For the Lord has it written in 2 Peter 3:9-10, “For the Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering toward us, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. But the Day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are there shall be burnt up.”

God declares in Isaiah 46:9-11 “I am God, and there is no other; I am God and there is none like Me, declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not yet done, saying, ‘My counsel shall stand, and I will do all My pleasure’...Indeed I have spoken it; I will also bring it to pass. I have purposed it; I will also do it.”

I “speak prophetically” these things, recognizing their potentials; being moved and urged by the Holy Spirit to put forth what I have come to know for the benefit of others. For the great mystery is that man using his own “free will” will not see these things lest he feeds himself the Word of God. I therefore preach the gospel as John the Baptist in Matthews

3:2 saying.” Repent ye for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand.” Yes...the times of restitution is indeed upon us and a great day is not too far off. For it is written in 1 Corinthians 2:9. “Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for them that love Him.”

And This Is the Final Instruction

Our Lord speaks these words Matthew 10:32-33.

“Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.”

The Battle of Armageddon His Return

Ezekiel 38-39.Revelations 19: These chapters speak so very graphically, as if to leave no doubt of there unfulfillment...yet! God is indeed serious. I now understand His fury...His anger...even His choice of words as He so clearly reveals. With a God forgiving Man of his many acts of unbelief time after time, God has allowed His Reverence to be refused without quick retribution.

Again, the question of why becomes the key to the answer. His withholding of His wrath was necessary so that Man would have a chance to demonstrate himself and all his faults, that we may know the folly of free will outside of the Creator’s Will. I used to wonder why God considered Earth such a place of nobility with all the universe at His command. After much prayer, I received a very interesting answer to the question. In all the universe this is the only planet where a creation of God is allowed to exercise the “I will.” Yes...the unfortunate right to deny their own creator and yet live. God has been passive for the benefit of those who are willing to elect Him amid all the deception.

I do understand the reverence given to the Lord in the book of Revelations 4:14 where it is written, “Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.” It’s as if He’s proving something to the Angelic Realm and most certainly to His Adversary...Satan. God’s Will is the Best Will!!!

Therefore, has not God been patient...has He not given in in order to get us out!! There isn’t one life form that asks of itself to be born before it is. Life is given regardless of the receiver and it always desires to live no matter the odds. Let us understand God’s wrath considering the opportunities He gives. God asks all that Jesus could give and neither did yield. If God can ask so much of Jesus what right can we dare say that God would never allow such a fate as the Book of Revelations reveals. We as Christians should always consider His Tone. Read these scriptures for they are indeed very plain. He will reach a point when he has had enough. And it’s nearer day by day.

For it is written in Romans 9:27-28, “Isaiah also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved: (and always will) For He will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.” Man is saved by Grace therefore, who can argue with the Lord’s mercy when an end to sins must come. Man is condemned by his error of putting Christ on the cross. Yes, the Jews took the Fall but the unbelief of the Gentiles, except for a remnant also, proves their guilt as well. If the Gentiles refuse Christ after the Resurrection has been demonstrated, whose error is the greater and whose judgment is more warranted??? God does not condemn us for our errors but we are condemned for our “lack of repentance.” And so it has been for Israel...a national rejection requires a national repentance! For the Lord has given man 2000 years of Grace! I say then, who can argue with the Lord’s 7 year Judgment???

God’s primary purpose is to restore His Glory and His Honor before men. The Old Testament is filled with such a necessity. In addition, it is to give Christ the Glory and Honor as Judge and King. The book of Daniel links prophetically Christ and His Eternal Kingdom. It acts to bridge Ezekiel and Revelations in a very dynamic way. One example is in Daniel 2:34, 44-45. Notice the “stone” that is a reference to Jesus... remember the question, “Who is the stone that the builders rejected?” (See 1 Peter 2:4 and Matthews 21:24). Daniel 7 reveals more, as well as chapter 8, “Prince of Princes.” This all reveals Jesus Himself destroying the Beast and his Ten Horned Kingdom.

Concluding on the Prophetic Word.

Much has been said and personally I am exhausted from the physical time and energy that has been required of me. I have indeed been moved by the Spirit to put forth what must be heard. I know that He has chosen others who have chosen to receive but even so, it is irrational to think that many will be able to proclaim it as I have written it. I know the great burden I had to overcome and the sacrifice it took to be worthy to receive such divine messages. Everyone has a Bible and still they do not see. God has always used a minimum and achieved the maximum further showing His Power. No man is beyond Him!

There is a vicious cycle of events that are soon to occur, I hope that you are blessed by the knowledge received...that your faith is charged. that your soul is stirred...and that your spirit is fed. Let it be said that my creator is also yours, there is no preference but there is accountability.

And there are the Promises. Little has been said about them but much has been demonstrated in the person of Christ Himself. Are we not waiting for Him yet? Does His Word live to this very day. 2 00 0 years later? Moses himself now knows why the wait for the Promised Land. The world has expanded like no man knew could but God Himself. God has literally fulfilled His Words in Revelations 5:9, “And they sung a new song, saying, ‘Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou was slain and has redeemed us to God by the blood out of every Kindred, and Tongue and People, and Nation’.”

Little did Moses know indeed what God meant when he told Abraham that he would be the father of many nations. God has performed a Work of Art...Amen! And yes because of such a close relationship to God Himself Israel has been blinded by the Work of the Lord, however of their own choosing. And I see a world about to make the same error against Israel as Israel made against their Messiah. For the Gentiles have blinded themselves...yes neither is the better as God has concluded that none is righteous, no not one! And to all those proud men God is set to prove them in their ways. The subtleness of the Lord is stunning when you really consider all things. So consider all things I have written. Let us desire to know our Creator as a child yearns for his mother's presence. It is the one passion we all should seek out. and it requires Faith!! Feed your spirit for Man indeed does not live by bread alone but by every Word of the Living God.

Herein I conclude this journey with the Word of the Lord." For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness. Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them. For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse." (Romans 1:18-20.)

The Promises and the Crowns

It is written in 1 Corinthians 15:54-55, "For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" Let it be said that there is none cause greater than Eternal Life. Men and women will join armies and die for their country young kids join gangs and are willing to put their life on the line to be welcomed and yet all that is promised is a medal and a flower on a grave. Man can't give to himself anything more. There are many people dying for a cause everyday. The world crowns it's heroes constantly whether they are athletes, politicians, soldiers, policemen, etc. Crowning isn't anything new and receiving rewards is a natural part of Man's achievements recognized. God offers promises as well. And I know they will be performed at the appointed time. Let us know the Prize...for the Lord has promised we shall receive it:

1. "The Crown of Life." This crown is promised to all those who have withstood the tribulations and martyrdom for Christ.

Revelations 2:10 states, “Be faithful until death, and I will give you a crown of life.”

2. “The Crown of Glory.” Those who have served Jesus Christ in the role of elders and pastors will receive such. 1 Peter 5:14 states, “The elders who are among you... will receive a crown of glory that does not fade.”
3. “The Crown of Rejoicing.” For those who have won others to faith in Jesus Christ as their Savior. 1 Thessalonians 2:19, “For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Is not even you in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming?”
4. “The Crown of Righteousness.” This crown is to be given to all Christians that long for the return of Christ. 2 Timothy 4:8 states, “Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only, but also to all who have loved His appearing.”
5. “The Incorruptible Crown.” There is a crown of purity for the victors in the daily spiritual struggle which we wage in our life. 1 Corinthians 9:25 reads, “And everyone who competes for the prize is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a perishable crown, but we for an imperishable crown.”

“For our citizenship is in Heaven, from which we also eagerly await for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ: Who will transform our lowly body that it may be conformed to the working by which He is able even to subdue all things to Himself.” (Philippians 3:20-21.)

Our Savior The Christ concludes:” I, Jesus, have sent my angel to give you a testimony for the churches. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, and the bright Morning Star. The Spirit and the bride say, “Come!” And let him who hears say, “Come!” Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.”

PREFACE: THE UPPER ROOM VISIT

A Statement of Vision: The Upper Room Visit

On a cold winter night in Rockford, Illinois, a group of writers/poets sat around a table reading their various works. The purpose of the meeting was to share our talents and, more importantly, to express our faith in our Lord Jesus. On this particular night, the thought of what this could lead to entered my mind. Here we were down in the lower level of the public library. However, I sensed the Lord was making it His Upper Room. All of us were coming from diverse backgrounds and covering all ages and denominations. We were few in number, but new faces continue to show up at the meetings, giving us new insights and always the joys of a believer in Christ. Clearly something was going on as the Lord continued to draw others to this creative venue in our hopes of publishing material with Jesus as our focus.

Reflecting on the crucifixion of Christ, by the time Jesus breathed his last breath on the cross, there were only two men willing to openly take Him down from the cross. They were Joseph and Nicodemus, for the disciples abandoned the cross out of fear for themselves, but God always has someone to do His work. So it didn't matter that the disciples were not present. For by the grace of God, Jesus held nothing against them. Jesus showed them a resurrected Savior, and they continued to be His disciples, and their hope was restored.

During Jesus's post ministry after His resurrection, what was twelve disciples became 120, waiting for something of which they knew not of. They were directed to wait and to wait together in the Upper Room, expecting. Then on the Day of Pentecost, their faith was rewarded and empowered; they gave birth to the Church, and the world hasn't been the same since. I believe that such a phenomenon is being established now in these perilous times by the Spirit of God. A quest for the righteousness of God in a self-righteous world. The world is in a deep pain as it struggles to live with a God but with disregard for any truths or laws from God. Such was the case, and in the Upper Room, those 120 precious believers were being set to restore God's position. They were moved by the Spirit to preach Hope through salvation, and the platform was Christ and Christ only. After the passing of approximately two thousand years, could the world be falling back to those times and in need of the reality of God through divine intervention once again on an even a grander scale, if you will?

The Rockford Christian Writer's Guild had a vision to put their faith in Lord Jesus in print. It's an effort to express, share, and promote through the pen how the Lord continues to work through those who He touches with His Spirit. I personally have found more joy being in the Lord than doing something for Him and, as result, seem to do even more for Jesus. Such is the essence of the collective works of inspired writings that make up this book. In this presentation, you will find poetry to prophetic utterances, even psalms. It would be easy to let them collect dust on a closet shelf, written but never read. Thoughts that are never spoken! This position I chose not to take, hoping just one unbeliever may be touched to know the Word is our Light and in it, nothing is hid.

And what is the purpose of these writings? Personally, I want to restore the faith and the hope that was set two thousand years ago, with prophecy being the vehicle of delivery as the Spirit giveth. Let us remember that Jesus is the spirit of prophecy, and He is The Prophet of prophets. I simply work in His office. These inspired writings are meant to speak His hope and His forewarning in preparation of a deliverance to come... someday. I just pray daily that I put forth the prophetic word, being also a part of His ministry, for the glory of God and bringing others to that marvelous light. In 2 Peter 1:19-21 it is written: "We have also a more sure word of prophecy. where unto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn. and the day star arise in your hearts. Knowing this first that no prophecy of the scriptures of any private interpretation. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.”

In my study of God’s Word, there is a consistent error that is made by the people of God throughout biblical history. We fail to ask God what is His plan for Himself? Being too concerned with ourselves, all too often, this is the higher purpose that we never seem ready to hear. I have searched the scripture diligently for His purpose for Himself and have been inspired to write the experience for the benefit of the Church. Let’s meet once again in the study room of our mind in preparation of His Return because I got the feeling that the Lord is making ready a fresh anointing for the New Millennium. Peace be unto you through our Lord the Christ.

“AND THE HAND OF THE LORD WAS UPON ME”

(A Baptism by the Spirit)

It happened on a day in April of 1990, in the living room of my home being alone... very alone. I had left work early just to study the Bible and pray. Seeking for something that I knew was there. I continued to attain a higher understanding of Jesus Christ. Sitting on the sofa and reading a book titled Sermon on the Mount, I suddenly laid my head back, meditating on His Words and ultimately His Righteousness. Without realizing it, I began to slip into a trance... a very deep trance. I found myself unable to move but being moved nonetheless, for there was a weight upon me that was driving me slowly but surely from the sofa to the floor. I was laid prostrate, and the weight continued to press upon my back. Attempting to get up, I could not do so literally or in the vision. Yes, there was a vision set before me. For as I struggled to get up but could not, at the tilt of my head, I saw a stake set in the rocky ground. It was like dusk, and all I could see was the base of this stake for there was nothing else to see.

Suddenly, I had an eerie and yet profound feeling that someone was hanging on that stake, and that someone was me. I remember thinking, Why am I thinking of me hanging on a stake if I am laid upon the ground? Yet this is what was puzzling me throughout the whole vision. I therefore struggled to gaze at the top by slowly and with much effort traveling up the stake with my eyes for there continued to be a weight pressing firmly on me. Attempting to stand, I could not! As I raised my head and eyes, I came upon the feet and then the knees. It was dusk, but I was determined to see the waist, then the torso. I truly felt that I would see myself hanging on the cross. I felt dead and yet I was alive.

Certainly I was anticipating myself to be hanging on that stake for I also felt my sins. Yes, the weight of my own sins seemed to condemn me for I knew I was before the Lord. I saw the shoulders, and then I saw the head. Falling forward, the whole body literally was torn and bleeding. I gazed in amazement. Yes, even awe, if you will, and yet I felt utter shame and ultimately fear, but oh, was there also so much joy. For it was not me who was on that cross. It was someone else! I whispered, “Is that Jesus?” I knew He had taken my place for it was I who should have been up there, and yet there He was through no fault of His own.

Suddenly, a Voice boomed out of the sky, and then I found myself standing on my feet, and the Voice said most profoundly, “THIS IS WHAT MY BELOVED SON HAS DONE FOR YOU.” I cried as I fell to my knees, thanking my Lord indeed. The Voice was fearful, but now it was not given unto me to fear for I felt whole, even renewed. I felt baptized by the Spirit of the Lord. The Vision was then ended, and I opened my eyes, finding myself on the floor instead of the sofa where I had sat. I was sweating and had lost all concept of time. Though it seemed short due to the events. I did know that it was not, for the clock approximated over an hour at least.

I asked myself, Did I have an out-of-the-body experience? This I may never know, but this I do know: “I am crucified. Nevertheless, Christ is alive in me.” I did thank the Lord for His long-suffering patience toward me and acknowledged before Him that I am at His service. I continued to study the Prophetic Word of the Lord, and on May 16, 1990, while at work in my private office, a Voice came upon me and said, “Now write what you have come to know.” Without hesitation, I wrote my first Prophetic Letter, and so began a work that the Lord has called me to do. And this is the Work:

SEVEN LETTERS DETAILING
THE PROPHETIC FRAMEWORK OF
THE RETURN OF CHRIST

“AND THEY WALK WITH THEIR HEADS DOWN”

(A Vision of the Cross)

So there we go, all of us walking through life. Feet slowed with our step being guided, but not knowing where. Heads down... All heads are down. Millions upon millions, walking a slow but steady pace. For some unknown reason, many are afraid to look up, but they do look at something if only to walk around it, lest they bump into the obstacle. The walk of mankind is the fear in Adam. “I heard the voice of the Lord in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked, and so I hid myself.” And the Lord said, “Who told thee thou was naked?” Adam never did answer the question of who told him he was naked. He seemed too anxious to place blame when what was needed was admitting fault! Yes, this is the walk of Mankind. In the garden, the obstacle was the voice of the Lord, but on Calvary’s Hill, the obstacle is none other than the Cross. And all mankind travels the path of life with this obstacle in their way. This is my vision at the cross.

Mankind travels the path that leads ultimately to Calvary’s Hill. It is God who has predestinated Man to walk this path, but it is Man who decides if he shall travel it, looking up or looking at the cross or not even looking at all. I walked such a walk, but now a vision is given unto me. The Cross is at the top of the hill, unmovable by time, and none can remove it though they may try. So heads are down and their souls are hid as they walk the path that is laid down before them. Each man senses that something is in the path of his way. Most will simply follow the path that others beside them walk. Seeking not to question, they receive no answers.

As they approach the cross, most walk around it without even looking up, let alone looking at. As they merge back together after being split by the presence of the Cross in the middle of the hill, they do look back to see what caused them to split. And when they do look up at the back of the cross, they see no one! Thinking themselves the wiser, they walk in their pride, unashamed of their sins. Since they see no Christ on the cross, they see no need for salvation. It is the time they choose to look up that blinds them. This is Religion!

And then there are those who look at the Cross, failing to look up at the Christ. They see the stake in the road and lean against it to rest. They find that the stake is comforting, and they raise their hands, assimilating the posture of the One above them. Hence they become a fair distraction as multitudes upon multitudes pass by. They do attract a great many who stop to soothe their bowed heads that they might not hide with closed eyes. They admit that Someone is nailed to the cross. "Better Him than me," they say. Being at the base of the cross, they have no need to pick up their cross and deny themselves for they are too busy attracting others to its base. No need to climb up when we can just stay down! The Spirit acknowledges these as the institution of Christianity. They have the knowledge of the word but do not give their heart to the Christ.

And then there are those who, as they walk in the crowd, as they stand at the base of the cross, for some unknown reason, look up, gazing in amazement at the bloodied disfigured man nailed to the Cross. They search the Cross for all its purpose, but more significantly is that they react to its Error, for He was found without Sin in His Body and undeserving of the death Man placed upon Him. Thus we are found guilty of what we already were... sinners! These, they hide no more from the Voice the cross represents. They fall to their knees, recognizing that they should be nailed to the cross, and therein is found the grace of God and so they repent!

The Spirit of the Cross then lifts me up and sets me out of the multitudes on the sideline. Eyes are opened and my head is straight, and

I am told to beckon to the crowd to “Look up... Look up!” But only so few do as we walk with our heads down. For to carry your cross, you must be willing to be placed upon it! This is the victory, and this is the vision I was made to see, and these on the sidelines are the sealed!

THE PASTOR AND THE PROPHET

These are the words the Lord has spoken:
For our determination has been found before His Throne
And He has heard the desires of our hearts.
And so a place shall be established... yea
A habitation that the Spirit of Him might dwell
In the fullness of His Truth.
And in My House shall tears be brought before My Altar.
That there should be joy and joy unspeakable.
For who can know me lest my righteous judgment touch thee.
So let the minister lead and shall the prophet proclaim.
Let the minister protect and the prophet advise.
And shall my minister build the walls
But my prophet shall be without blueprint. For he is mine!
Let these things be. Lest the congregation be overwhelmed
And My Word becomes hindered.
Therefore, I sanction thee to work well in My House.
For the work of the ministry is for
The perfecting of the saints
That they might know the fullness of Him whom I have sent.
Therefore, bring me the fruit of their repentance.

That my Spirit might settle upon the weak
And the lame, the hurt and the fearful.
Yea, even the poor and the lost who need to be found.
I counsel thee to Stand at the Door of My Gate and Sound the Trumpet of Departure that they might taste
That which is Hope and Hear that which is Pure.
Sound it well that my Spirit might hear thine expectation!
And know for a certainty thy precious Faith.
That it is in my Son, the Christ, the Blessed Redeemer.
Hold fast to that which is true, my Church.
For the God of Israel is set to speak once again.
And it is His righteousness, which shall be declared by his prophets.
So gather the flock my ministers!
That we shall make way for the Lord of Lords and King of Kings.
Savior to the Gentiles and Messiah to the Jews. Amen!

To the Churches, let us place these words in the center of our hearts that they might be found at the entrance of His Church.

GREETINGS, MINISTERS OF THE CHURCHES AND THE CONGREGATION

The word is declared, and the moment has been established. For this is the “times of restitution” bringing forth the coming of our Lord and Savior the Christ. For if the apostles can declare it, then why, with all we are made to see, cannot we declare it now! By the grace of God, there is one who works in the “office of a prophet” in the House of the Lord. The Lord has found him, one who is determined to speak the prophetic word of God. For I am commanded to publish these words before the congregation that they might know, and I pray they may have belief in the ways of the Lord. For it is written, “My people perish for lack of knowledge” and “Where no counsel is, the people fall, but in the multitude of counselors there is safety.” I am but a counselor and a messenger in the name of Jesus.

The following articles are four statements of “prophetic utterance” to the church and for the church but not necessarily by the church but by the Spirit. I appeal to one and to all to consider these words that they might be profitable to your ministry. The following is a short synopsis of each:

- A. The first, “The Declaration of the Mystery of the Last Days,” reveals the mystery of God unfolding in end times as the scripture states. It announces to the Church to prepare for final deliverance from judgment. In addition, it issues a warning to an unbelieving world concerning his prophetic word on the Jews' return as a nation, thereby proving the reality of his word on earth. Finally, it also declares to Israel a deliverance to come despite their unbelief in Jesus as we see now. God is going to show to the world that His love will be the greater? He will deliver Israel at last and yet judge a world that rejects His grace.

- B. The second and third letter of utterance speaks specifically to America, God's country as we have declared. It has become a place full of disobedience to the laws of God, and even the churches do seek to justify their own sins. Bringing to life the words of the apostle Paul, which read, "Let no man deceive thee. For the day of the Lord shall not come, except there come a falling away first. Then that man of sin shall be revealed. The son of perdition" (2 Thessalonians. 2:3). Five of the the seven letters addressed to the churches in the Book of Revelations chapters two through four reveals a sad conclusion. Jesus admires their works but declares they have forgotten their first love... Him. He request of them to repent. Clearly in America, our churches consisting of it's many denominations and cultures are failing to sustain pure and sound biblical doctrine. With true repentance before our God being practically nonexistent among much of the christian's community. Many members come to church but fail to come to Christ and as the institution of Christianity weakens so shall America the nation.
- C. The fourth letter is a word concerning God's righteous judgment. In essence, would it be fair to try only Israel by Christ's first coming and not also try every other nation by his second coming? As Christ tested Israel, the Holy Spirit has made me to see how God is using Israel to test the world to see if the gentiles believe the word concerning Israel's return as Israel was required to believe the prophetic word concerning who Jesus Christ was. I declare that our religiosity is doing the same thing to us as it did to Israel. The question I ask is, could we reject within our hearts the reality of Israel's salvation fulfilling scripture at last? Would not this act restore and prove absolute truth to the glory of God and no one else? Could God be showing the world what truth is and where it sits! That it's inside the gates of Jerusalem when the battle rages in the Valley of Jehoshaphat which is on the other side of that gate?

We the church ought to be saying what a mighty God we serve as this reality nears with each passing day? God word warns us in Romans Chapter 11 not to be boastful, envious or jealous in that day but to prepare to see righteousness about to be performed when Zion the Deliverer comes! This letter addresses these concerns because I see so many sleeping saints in the churches across America and the time is short. For when the preacher of righteousness speaks, he is usually called directly by God to declare it and I sense it to be the final call even the last resort.

Do come that we may have eyes that we may see and ears that we may hear. That a rejoicing may begin within our hearts, and the promotion of the Gospel might reach out to a lost world one more time. For the Spirit of Truth shall declare his story through the prophets of the Lord in the hour that God himself determines it. And let our hearts know it is only fair that if first the Jew, it is now the Gentile test and this is the Lord's righteousness that He is set to perform! I hope the following four letters of prophetic utterance add knowledge and wisdom giving the church clarity all of which belongs to the glory of God. I am but a cry in the wilderness!

THE DECLARATION OF THE MYSTERY OF THE LAST DAYS

The Lord God whom we serve... is a living God
Full of grace and tender mercies
Oh, but is His anger to be kindled
And His heart to take offense in that great and notable Day!
Let us hear His justice that we might know our sins.
Has not His Son been falsely accused?
Oh, do man quest for that which is right... all men!
Yet he sees not the injustice against one found even without sin.
For the Lord has published it before all the peoples of the earth.
But their ears are plugged and eyes are shut.
Righteousness to them is only for them indeed.
How foolish is thee who questions not!
That no answer can I give when no question is asked.
Thou runneth from me, oh man, running into mine adversary.
For remember, there is an enemy in the path.
And his time draweth near and his kingdom is fallen.
And so shall the kingdoms of yours, oh man, do likewise.
Shall you not be full of anger... full of desperate lies when I, even I, the Lord, say enough!

Thou shalt know it most assuredly.
By the mouth of my own prophets shall thou know it.
Rise up, my Church, and hear them well.
For I have come unto you to speak as I have to my own nation.
The earth is thine wilderness
And the New Jerusalem shall come down upon it.
So shall my prophets prophesy concerning Jerusalem.
For it is full of strife, full of division, and is now
The blood beginning to flow as I knew it would.
For there are giants in the land, my Church
But do remember the report of Joshua and Caleb.
For they believed by faith and was rewarded and so must you!
Oh, my prophets, do look upon Israel the nation lest
I send prophets from Israel the nation.
Church, do consider this ancient nation in these modern times.
For it is my written word moving before all the earth.
Has it not been spoken from days long gone.
And yet I am refused! But I AM THAT I AM... as then
And with a great thunder, I AM THAT I AM... even now!
My people are few in the midst of many.
Is it not for a demonstration?
Remember by my ancient prophets did I not speak
That I do this not for their sake but for my namesake!
For my nation is full of pride and indeed boastful.
But what of you, Brazil, and what of you, Iran and Italy and China and Russia and Nigeria and oh, so many other nations.
I ask do you serve me... Do you declare my Son?
And do I have tears for my America... tears indeed!

You have refused to hear my trumpets as Israel refused in the wilderness.
Come ye out of her, my saints... for she is fallen! She is fallen!
Therefore, publish this before the congregation,
That they might know, oh man.
For to know me is to hear me... Such is My righteousness.
So hear this and hear this well... for the words are a certainty.
Ask the Lord again the question, "Will thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?" as it is written.
Ask indeed, my Israel. That I might provide the answer!
For thus saith the Lord concerning the question.
This is how I shall put all things under the feet of my Son.
I shall permit a weight to come upon the backs of Israel
And they shall be heavy laden with burdens.
And you, oh Gentiles, shall perform it so!
You shall serve me well in your unbelief concerning My Word
And Israel shall cry out when all the world is encamped around thee.
When their politics, their armor, their economies, and even their gods
Shall seek to bring my nation to its end.
Shall then my nation say, "Come, my Lord, do Come!"
Can they repent? Will I yet cast away their transgression against me?
Does not my Word declare that salvation shall rest in Me? So shall it be!
For there will be no other nation, people, weapon, or hope
That can save thee but by Him that was rejected.
Is it not written by my prophet Zechariah
"Then shall the Lord go forth, and fight against those nations,
As when he fought in the day of battle. And His feet shall stand in that Day upon the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem."
I ask what other god can declare such a purpose?

And make known such a mystery that is before all the earth!
How precious is the work of mine own Son... Savior to the Gentiles.
And shall I also demonstrate... Messiah to the Jews!
I declare to all those who have an ear, it is not the Church or Israel
But the Church and Israel! And by my Son shall they both be one new man.
And then the scripture shall be fulfilled as written in Romans 11:15
“For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be but, life from the dead.”
And therein shall the Lord God be glorified
And all the earth shall see it and know it.
Oh indeed, How sweet the grace of God.
Who can measure His grace and who can perform His mercy!
Beware, Gentiles. Prepare my Church for that great and notable day is now.
Behold, I will make all things new in that hour as promised to those who believe.
For the Earnest Expectation is indeed the Blessed Hope.
Look up, the Lord declares, I say look up for the visitation!
Thus have the Lord written. So shall my prophets declare it!

Written in July 1991.

TEARS FOR AMERICA

---

Oh Land... Far from the Apple of my Eye
Great has been thy calling... A place of refuge for the many.
Some out of necessity and some by the yoke.
Yet has not all been blessed in its Promise?
Did not we put our Hope in thee... the Lord!
Despite the error of our ways, we stood corrected
And blessed in His knowledge none the same.
Many indeed, yes, many a seed among men.
Having the same dreams... the same hope... and the same God.
Blessed were we as the Lord smiled upon us as we sought Him out.
But oh, America... Where are thee now? Cannot the Lord ask?
And can we answer the question while we are caught up in the Fruits provided and hearing not His Voice?
Do the children know His ways for to tell their own? I think not!
Mighty America, everyone in you cries for things to be their way.
There is no contentment, and where is the unity?
They cry not for the Lord anymore for they know Him not!
Oh, America... an arm of support to my chosen, are you compromising
In your success? In the name of democracy you gained freedom.
But was not your freedom founded on Truth!

Therefore, are you not being swallowed up in your own design?
Yes... diversity being your promise can also become your curse!
Where is the truth when you honor
The lies of those afar in your politeness?
Oh, America... Have you not abandoned your own children
Preferring to court the favors of outsiders for the few inside?
How long, land of the free? How long, land of the free?
We are burdened by our greed... Enslaved by debt of our choosing!
With our God we are neither hot nor cold but lukewarm...
Giving in without giving our all, only to give up!
Therefore, I have Tears for my America.
Yes... the hope of the world has been in thee.
And I can see none finer in the Lord than America.
Therefore, I have Tears for the World also.
For when America speaks no more for the True God...
Then the True God must speak for Himself,
And then there shall be tears in America... Tears indeed!
Thus the Lord do Saith... Amen and Amen.
And it is written concerning he who prophesies: "And if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the Lord hath not spoken? When a prophet speaks in the name of the Lord, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken, but the prophet has spoken presumptuously: therefore, thou shalt not be afraid of him" (Deuteronomy 18:21-22).
"For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honor in his own country" (John 4:44).
"Behold, I have told you before!" (Matthew 24:25).

AN ANSWER TO THE TEARS... MY AMERICA!

I have heard the cry of my countrymen. I have seen the tears of the daughters of thine nation. And now do we lift up our voices in anxious prayer! Now do we seek His refuge and search Him out! And He has heard our cry, but He returned unto me a question. For the Lord do ask, "What is it that we require?" And we do answer for ourselves. We shall overcome! Singing "God Bless America" as if He is ours and ours alone. But do we examine ourselves that we might wonder? I think not! Indeed, our hearts act above reproach. And even our courts are in disarray, believing our rights to be above His laws.

He asks, are we the better for it? Oh, what a wretched nation we have become! Even our adversaries are beginning to know justice better than we do. And they are now set to look upon our calamity. Oh, America! For our democracy has blinded us, and we have backslidden in our freedom! And the Lord do ask me, His servant among servants, how much freedom shall we require with our democracy? Shall your purpose be for an occasion to sin? But because His grace is so abundant, we are certain to misappropriate it in our freedom for He is mindful of our policies on Capitol Hill, and our amendments from place to place are indeed contrary to Him. Indeed, we are in opposition to His very Laws. But He is God, and He states, "I change not!" Is it not peculiar that the name of him whom the Lord has Christened is silenced even within our institutions of learning? And even now we begin to suffer loss not just in the heartland of our nation but from coast to coast. Listen up, for even the beauty of America has become tarnished! The Lord has rained a cleansing, but we are refusing a refreshing. I assure you we have not met His wrath, but by His chastening, we will learn from the absence of His Grace. For the elements of the earth shall consume us in our disobedience.

Think, oh Man. The Lord requires you to hear! Why, oh Gentiles, can't you rejoice in the salvation of Israel? Have ye not profited from their fall as an object lesson? Is not the very works of His hand made known to us through Israel? And now it is before us night and day for an understanding and as evidence. But knowledge we have refused, and wisdom we do cast out! Oh, but the Lord has placed a hot word upon my lips. He has lit a fire within my heart!

Requiring a proclamation, He says, Oh man... Loose the cause of Israel before their faces even before the earth. And make known the purpose of the Lord before the congregation. Establish the God of Israel for a demonstration of His power and His glory! For He is set once again to restore the Tabernacle of David before their eyes. And the Lord knows that you shall be jealous in His sight, ye Gentiles. For our concerns will be in opposition to His Agenda, which shall be by the Word. Let us turn our attention to Truth that we might see His Justice set against the nations who are contrary to His nation and His Son. For is this not but the very display of His mercy to those nations throughout the ages?

For we are in attendance in the Court of our God and know our sins. Therefore, the Lord has proved our guilt through the innocence of His Son! I say make way, for justice shall be served to the transgressors against Truth and Promise. Harden not your hearts against the knowing of His Ways. For it is a truth that the Lord has caused me to speak. May the people of God hear these words for this is the conclusion of the matter. For the Lord has a concern above our own... . America! How many of you remember that we serve the God of Israel? Can we bear it that we might gain from it? I pray the saints do accept it in humility. To promote Me or to protect yourselves, which gospel do we serve the Lord asks?

Church, I appeal to you to hear this line of thought, which do come by the Spirit. As Satan blinded Israel through their selfishness, and so they did stumble. Is he blinding even the saints that they might stumble over the Word concerning Israel? I affirm that our indifference has become equivalent to Israel's. Was not the Word written concerning Jesus and Israel refused to believe in that hour? Now the Word is written concerning Israel's return, and we do not consider it in our hour!

As Israel rejected the Christ in their ignorance, I have been made to see also that the Church Institution is in unbelief concerning the Hope of Israel's salvation. Oh, the wisdom of the Lord in the performing of His Test. What goes around has indeed come around! And I cannot refuse it or argue its point. This is righteousness at its finest, and I know God is the preparer of it. Church of Gentiles, be careful of having your own righteousness. Be careful indeed, for God is not subordinate to your thoughts nor your traditions but require our obedience to His thoughts... lest we fail also.

Therefore, do not dismay but prepare for instruction. The Lord has set before Him a new voice and given unto those a vision. And I do see an ancient promise set to be fulfilled, and it is a revelation. For the Lord did state, "I will pour out my Spirit and they shall prophesy of it." For indeed the time has come for the Anointed One. Remember, is not the time an appointed end to this world that another might come? I forewarn that you do not forget the Lord's covenant with Israel or shall you refuse to remember it being wise in your own conceit! It can be counted against you in the day the Lord should require you to believe it.

Therefore, this is my answer to your tears, oh America. As you choose to cast My Son from your democracy that other religions may abide. As you choose to make acceptable before Me man with man and woman with woman! As your politics approves gambling and your credit approves debt. So shall I permit it that you may fall from the weight of thy greed in your freedom. For it shall be a curse to you, and I shall sit back, and your cries I shall not hear. For then the Lord you shall be without, and in your diversity there will be calamity.

But to my Church, remember the Lord's decree of faith. Remember the prophecy that must yet be fulfilled by the Word for it is a more sure word. Remember thy First Love and His Kingdom that is to Come. Remember the judgment, which must be served through the revelation of My Son. Remember My Promise to Israel, for I will covet them in that hour. Are not all these things written in the same Book for remembrance? Reality is about to check in upon the earth, and there is no excuse for not seeing that which can be seen and read and understood for the glory of God and His Truth. I pray thee judge not according to appearance but judge righteous judgment. Let us not say no to His Word for it is the Name of Jesus. And is it already written? Prepare my saints to wear Robes of Righteousness for there is a wedding to attend. Rejoice now. I say rejoice evermore in this truth. For by the grace of God do I bring you a minority report as did Joshua and Caleb. And how few did follow them for there was not one! Christ is before us; let us Hear Him for He states, "Behold, I have told you before."

But who shall love Truth that they might desire Righteousness be served? Our God has been merciful and full of patience that we should know His grace indeed. I commission your prayers for a prophet of the Lord has no honor... yet! And who shall believe such a report in the time that it should be known? But the righteousness of the Lord is my strength, and He shall be my shield. For the Lord loves the righteous one. So be ye righteous by wisdom, my Church. Wisdom does cry out into the streets and whispers gently before the saints. Where is righteousness that it might be performed? I thank God that His Word has been placed before us to know Him. For the Word states, "Through knowledge are the righteous delivered." Let us speak with unspeakable joy that a real Kingdom draws near for a silent thunder is set to roar, and the earth will be shaken!

In closing I say open thine heart to the seeing of His ways, and thou shalt be with Jesus for it is good that the Bride should know the coming of her Groom. That the wedding might be pure and holy... Come, the Lord do say. Come indeed! Even if need be repent that ye may come before Him. Come one and come all and be ye forgiven. AMEN AND AMEN.

FOURTH LETTER

Purpose: For the Perfecting of the Saints

Ephesians 4:11-13

“IN ALL FAIRNESS” SUCH IS THE LORD’S RIGHTEOUSNESS

Hear, Earth and all its inhabitants, the Word of the Lord for the time has come, and the moment has already been declared. But the people go about their way, unaware and so unconcerned, consumed in the serving of themselves, for themselves, night and day. They continuously gather only to be found without what they really need. Be still, those who are quick upon the earth, that you might hear. Be observant that you might see and come to know. For the time of the Lord’s visitation draws near indeed. Now that the earth is full of the abundance of men and their inventions, what shall man conquer next that he can overcome by his own strength? By our intellect we have stood upon the moon and searched the very heavens for our comparison and have found none!

But that does not mean that there are none to be considered. For the Word of God sits upon our shelves that we might hear . . . Thus saith the Lord! But man rejects the God that is for the god he wants, much to his own hurt. Yeah, but the Word of God has withstood Time itself and has overcome the unbelief of those who choose unbelief. It has endured and continuously persevered throughout the ages, penned by His servants of the ancient days. Is not the Word even before you and I? Indeed, even the Word has overcome the judgment of the Tower of Babel. It has risen even above His stumbling nation to show the Lord stumbles not! Though I have scattered those at the Tower of Babel, did I not also bring man back together at Pentecost? How marvelous is the Lord! Has not the Lord translated His Word that the many tongues might receive it? For in this generation, who can not have it before him? Which one of us can give a worthy excuse of ignorance before the God of Israel? For the Spirit has published His Word and set forth His Works. Promoting it to the ends of the earth as the Lord said must be done... First!

And so has He performed it, for indeed no weapon has prospered against Him. Now can all the earth make a decision, yes, even a firm rejection? And can the whole earth not do it universally... collectively... and conclusively? For this is the wisdom of the Lord and the patience of His grace. That He waits! And has not our God also waited for man but to no avail! So many of us have gone astray and now even refuse to turn from sin. We have an excuse for every wrong and a blame for every fault. But where is our own account, and can it be hidden from God?

There is a thorn that God Himself has placed in the midst of the earth. And that old devil called Satan fights against the Word of God by blinding the world to His Word, and oh, what a multitude He has. For what ought to be a rose before the church has the appearance of a thorn to the earth. And the church is also ready to see it as a thorn except those who walk by the Word. And the Word is by the Spirit, and the Holy Spirit giveth us the wisdom of Christ. And His wisdom dictates a thorny issue, which shall determine true faith. That thorn is Israel, which shall be His rod of tension in the midst, a great time of decision for the whole world that they might believe in Jesus. It shall cause a trembling among the nations who have not His Word in the presence of their people nor His Hope in the depths of their hearts.

Am I not a God who can choose and yet deny, give grace and yet perform a test? Who can announce in ancient times things that are to be in the end times? Oh man, look and give reverence unto the Lord. What a merciful God we serve. For Israel shall be His sign upon the earth. A sign that shall be refused and is refused because the Lord shall be refused. But He is the Holy God who owns justice and is entitle to perform it against all who walk in unbelief. For we serve a crucified savior who owns the right of retribution... Oh Earth! Take heed and study for I do require of My people that they might know Me.

How does the Lord try the nations like Israel the nation was tried? Why should Israel be the only nation to be measured against His Law and Truth? Listen up, ye nations, for the Lord is also set to try you as He did Israel! All ye Gentiles of the many nations, the Lord stands before us all by the Word through the rebirth of His nation as Christ stood before them in His Birth. So Christ fulfilled the scriptures literally that the reality of God might be known to us! At whose expense, Church? Whose stumbling caused you to be lifted up? Whose ignorance of the Lord was made public that the Gentiles would profit from? It is the power of God under demonstration through His nation that gave us His Truth. Giving us our salvation and our redemption and our hope even to be resurrected! Oh, He has given a stunning revelation for the time of the end and I do fall upon my face! Praise God from whom all knowledge flows that we might have wisdom from.

We ought to love Israel for the burden they were made to bear for we have gained! I forewarn you of this with deep mourning. Israel is the Root, and we are branches. We cannot separate ourselves from this truth or surely we shall stumble also! Oh Israel, cry out to the crucified One that He might prove His resurrection, and by your repentance surely He must come for His Word promises it to us all. And now Israel is fulfilling the Word unawares. To make known the reality of who God is before those who choose to deny the Cross of Jesus and the redemption of Israel. I have found that angel of light who deceiveth the whole world. Church, none of our goodness shall prevail against the deceiver of this kind. But Truth and only Truth will Stand that God Himself may be glorified in righteousness. Will the real Israel please stand up! Is the church Israel or is Israel... Israel? Cannot God have two vessels of His making, or will man deny God the privilege only to lose due to his own selfishness? This I forewarn to all.

Satan whispers, “Did God really say He would restore Israel?” I proclaim emphatically by the Word that it states Yes... Yes... and Yes! God is indeed standing the Nation up, and the world refuses to believe. And even the churches contend with God and consider it not. Therefore, whose side are we really on, Church? The Word or the World? Shall it be what we think, or shall it be what actually can be seen and yet we refuse? Yes, what a mighty God we serve. For the Word does state: “Let every man be a liar that God may be true” and it will be so in the hour that He demonstrates it.

I am commanded to write the vision and Stand in the gap as a Cry in the wilderness. For the Battle is set in the Valley of Jehoshaphat, and Jerusalem is God's place of visit! He will not be denied in that final Hour. For it will be His moment in Time. God's thoughts indeed are higher than our thoughts, as high as the heavens above earth. Fear the Lord God and judge not, for the law of man is no better than the heart of the man. But the Law of God brings long life to those who follow it. And the Law of Christ even saves the soul for eternal blessings! So hear this as I close.

Ask God the question that He awaits... Why is Israel back? Let the Church pray this before the throne of God. And I heard His answer in the depths of my spirit as it was declared. Thus, saith the Lord by the Spirit of Truth. Righteousness means 'In All Fairness.' Can I the Lord stand before one nation only and require they know Me and not also require from all other nations that they know Me as well by Test? In all fairness, Israel had to believe in Christ's First Coming. Would it be right not to try the Gentiles' belief in His Second Coming? Read the Book to See!

In all fairness, people of the earth, don't you want equal opportunity also? So shall it be that the nations shall have its trial as Israel did. That Righteousness might be performed and Justice can be served to those who make the same error and have even a lesser excuse than Israel for they are an example. Remember, except when our righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the Pharisee, we will not see any better than they did. Let the black man see only black and the white man see only white. And every kind shall see it their way! For every man shall take hold of his tradition at the expense of losing Christ. The Lord states, "For My Word is not in you that you might believe in Me only." As the Jew, so shall be the Gentile. The Lord God does try the heart!

I prophesy to you this as Jesus was nailed to the cross, so is Israel to be nailed by a world of unbelief. And this time the Lord Himself shall answer Israel's cry, and the True God shall be made Known. To dust shall all the religions of this world crumble, even the denominations! But not the Word and neither the believer that overcomes by faith in Jesus name.

This is the Work of our Gospel in this generation. Be ye not afraid! This is the Seal which the Lord has graced me to open and to see by His Word. This is the Prophecy that now must come, and God Himself shall no more be seen darkly through obscure glass but as clear as crystal in pure righteousness. And the prophecy of the Seventieth Week of Daniel will sum up all things as written. For the Woman and her Man Child is Israel and the Lord Jesus. And the rejected Son will yet be received by the Nation to the Glory of God. As Savior to the Gentiles, let the Lord demonstrate also Messiah to the Jews! Let all men take their places and declare before God where ye stand. For the Deliverance has Come that the world will know what a mighty God we serve!

I AM AFTER THEE, OH LORD

My Lord and My God

Hear my cry and know my praise... For I am after thee.

For I have searched the low places... Yea, the hidden places have I sought thee out.

In my soul do I climb to the peak of the highest mountain
That I may Find the God of my salvation

Am I not lifted up by thy Grace

And made to sing by thine abundant mercies?

I am after thee, Oh Lord.

And in my flesh I cannot find thee.

But only in my spirit shall you be found.

I travel the path of the bumblebee, seeking thee,
Seeming to have no direct path...

Yet only is my destination made sure by your leading hand. And so I am found by thee, and my path do become straight.

I am made a servant of the Lord

And a friend unto Jesus, the Rock of my salvation.

By thy Spirit am I broken, but by thy Spirit Was I strengthened. Think well of me, Oh Lord,

That I might not be made to battle the Wind of the Spirit
For I do seek to rest as thou giveth Man in his beginning.

In me there is a secret storm calmed only by a still, small voice.

Yes, even a silent thunder

For my Lord will know the praise that dwells in me.

For it is a certainty that I shall not be silenced.

And let not even sin encroach upon me For will not my spirit hide from thee.

Thou I may stumble, the power of thy salvation will be holding me up.

And I shall forever repent for only thee is forever righteous.

Only thee is forever without sin, my Lord Jesus.

Therefore, I rest my case under Thy cross And seek no more for my peace... It is found!

For it is thy Spirit that has determined that it should be found.

Thou has heard my cry, and my voice has been heard.

Therefore, thou shall forever hear my praise
For thy sacrifice has cleansed me

And thou salvation has made me whole.

I am after thee, Oh Lord, for thou is a secret God, And you search for seekers after you and you only.

Blessed are those who are after the Lord

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE CROSS

(A Poem of Poetic Justice)

There's something amiss when the creation resists all that the Creator stands for.

As I gaze at the cross, it reflects a world lost
With Christ knocking on every Door.

Man thinking himself good, did that which he thought he should.

With charges of blasphemy and plenty of religiosity.

Refused to believe the Word... being filled with animosity.

Delivering the Lord to the Court of courts.

And so the trial did promptly begin.

He was alone, having not a character witness, nor even a friend

And when the judge could find no law against him,

Washing his hands, I'm sure he did what he can.

All except free this sinless man.

Crucify... crucify was the outcry from the crowd!

And the Law that was became no Law at all, and yet God smiled!

So there our Savior laid with outstretched arms,

Demonstrating His love despite the harm.

And while every man is born in sin,

The injustice we profess doesn't compare to the injustice He was placed in.

There's something amiss when the creation resists All that the Creator stands for even now like then.

But an empty Tomb was God's reward for a work well done.
Not to be hid, the Lord shone forth His only Son.

For Jesus showed His love toward all mankind.
And now there is life after death in only His name you will find!

But let the other side of the cross speak also.
That what and who we are has surely been exposed.

For in God's love so openly displayed We did show our wretchedness that day. And God's Law of Love soundly defeated Our law of justice, which we misdeeded.

Our anger truly showed only to see the peace of God flow.
Our fearfulness for no reason illuminated God's love for all seasons.

The Cross is the meeting place for all of this.
And believe it or not, the Creator let the creation insist!

So let us remember the wisdom the Cross is meant to bring.
God will have His day of justice that righteousness, which is fairness ought ring.

For the other side of the cross speaks well of His return. Sitting on the right-hand side of the Father, this He earned!

But there are yet those who choose not to believe Like doubting Thomas, they say "Not by faith but by sight must
I see!" But blessed are those who believe and have not seen!

For no more is God a mystery neither is He a dream.
You see, Grace and Mercy have been born out of Injustice. And it is the other side of the cross that gives us this message.

That our way of justice means nothing when Truth demands His Return.

For this is why the Word declares the Earth shall Burn And we who are caught up in His Rapture shall bear witness.

Revealing that the Other Side of the Cross was a lesson that went Unlearned!

LET THERE BE

In the midst of Change... Let there be Stillness.
In the midst of Disappointment... Let there be Contentment.
In the midst of Confusion... May there be Patience.
Yes! In the Hour of our Testing... Always let there be Faith!
And in our moment of Despair... Let there yet be Hope.
Despite being in the midst of these Calamities,
Remember that Jesus Christ can indeed Cope!
Let there be Silence... That we might whisper our Prayers.
Let there be Joy... That we might sing our Songs.
And let there be Peace... That we should wait on the Lord however Long.
Finally, if there is one thing that we must let there be,
Let there be Love and that it might be among us All.
For without such in our hearts might we Fall.
So as we grow, we may yet shed a few more Tears.
Seeking a more perfect Kingdom.
Nevertheless, let us come Near.
Therefore, I pray for the Spirit of Harmony.
May all these things be found in you.
And that a Healing may begin within us each.
For a testimony of what Christ's Love can do.
Let these things be not without me,
And most assuredly, let these things be not without you!

CLOSING THOUGHTS: A BACK-TO-BASIC GOSPEL

I hope you enjoyed the reading of this collection of inspired writings. To me it was an experience to be revealed even though such a “telling” was not my initial purpose or desire. I declare that God moved me in a way that He must be spoken of, and so I ultimately have done just that. It is indeed bold to declare oneself a prophet, and instead I think of myself as a Minister of the God’s Prophetic Word, and I do believe God is restoring this ministry in preparation of Christ’s return... The true prophet will do as the scripture requires in 1 Corinthians 14:3: “But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edify, exhort and to comfort.” I hope this material produces the fruit of faith and joy.

In the article titled “And the Hand of the Lord Was Upon Me,” I make reference of another series of articles not a part of these collective works. This effort titled “Seven Letters Detailing the Prophetic Framework of the Return of Christ” was written before any article in this book and gives a detailed account of prophetic events that are stated in scripture and is also proclaimed to be revealed in an inspired setting. The four letters of prophetic utterances represent a condensed version of the Seven Letters, which have common names such as letters but are very different in style, format, and approach. The Seven Letters exercises the gift of prophecy written in a more formal and conventional manner. It has the supporting scripture and fully grasp the complexities and paradoxes that can exist when studying biblical prophecy. It is recommended reading to the Institution of Christianity regardless of denominational setting or national/racial heritage and can be found on www.authorhouse.com. website.

I have shared these writings with individuals many times and seen how people have been blessed by them. All I desire is for people to see what I see. These writings hopefully should educate as well as forewarn because there is a refreshing to the Gospel coming that will shake all our comfort zones. Christ will be the centerpiece as always, but according to the Word, Israel is His purpose for returning, and we must be prepared to say Amen and Amen! Salvation will be Israel's at last, and my hope is we don't reject this Truth coming as written in the Word as Israel rejected his First coming, which was in the Word. Sad to say, despite the forewarnings, wisdom dictates many will reject this reality to their own hurt for it is already written.

Satan is revealing his mastery of making Man not see what he should be able to see. So it was in the Garden of Eden. So it was two thousand years ago when Israel failed and put Christ on the Cross, and so it is even now as the Gentile world, including unborn again, unaware, unbelieving church folk, is being led to put Israel on the Cross. Could God be testing us in much the same way as Israel was tested? And are we and even the churches above being tested? I certainly think not! Oh, the wisdom of the Lord! Hindu, Buddhism, Islam, Atheism, witchcraft, and every other false religion is about to be cast down. This is why the Battle of Armageddon is on the borders of Israel. As God is set to demonstrate one thing and one thing only, and that is... What Truth Is and Where it Sits! Now it comes down to he that overcome and not a denominational preference but a realization of His Word and that it is Heard!

If you notice, this is not religion but belief in His Word by a born-again experience with a personal relationship with Christ. Far more than just church, a distinction that needs to be acknowledged more and more with each passing day. May this book help that process to begin encouraging you to look at God's Word with a fresh anointing. Bless to see the future according to God's perspective. My heart cries out constantly for the world to hear these things, but they are so consumed. But every now and then, God sends me someone who does hear, and that makes this effort worth every bit of my time. And so I press on with this New Gospel, which is bridging Israel and the Church into one holy entity in preparation of the Kingdom to Come, led by Christ "Lord of Lord and King of Kings." Such is a Back-to-Basic Gospel!

At times this book may appear chaotic as I seeks to merge and republish the message. However, my goal and motive is to refresh or liven up the hope that is in our Savior Jesus Christ. A evangelistic voice that I hope gives birth to a revival. End times is also about New Times. The book of Revelations announces the coming kingdom of Christ and death is no more and it loses it sting forever among men. The Seven Letters was written before any article in my following book “The Inspired Writings of a prophet for Jesus the Christ. Both of these works give detailed account of prophetic events that are stated in scripture and is proclaimed to be revealed in an inspired setting. The four letters are self-proclaimed prophetic utterances and represent a condensed yet important supportive version of the Seven Letters, which have similar objectives but are quite different in style, format and approach. I believe the Seven Letters exercises the gift of prophecy written in a more formal and conventional manner.

The Seven Letters has the supporting scripture and fully grasp the complexities and paradoxes that can exist when studying biblical prophecy. It is recommended reading regardless of denominational setting or national/ racial heritage. And so it is written in Ephesians 2:6-8 “It is by grace you have been saved! And God has raised us up with Christ and seated us with Him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus. In order that in the coming ages He might display the surpassing riches of His grace, demonstrated by His kindness to us in Christ Jesus. For it is by grace we are saved through faith and not from yourselves, it is the gift of God.”

I CLOSE WITH AN OUTPOURING.

Oh my God, Great is thy countenance. For I knew not myself and my sins till I knew Thee and thy Righteousness. Yes, one has revealed the other. Thy Grace is known unto me and may it be known to all. I am convicted by thy Work. Lord Jesus who made Himself a little lower, that I might know my creator and be saved by His salvation. He is our consolation determined not to be absent from us.

But we must accept Him by acknowledging ourselves for what we are. I strike down the pride which blinds me to His purpose. Has He not proven Himself? I seek not to earn my salvation but to speak it and speak it clear and bold. To let it be known as He would have it. Am I a testimony to His cause? Do I seek for myself? For no price or purchase I do give freely that which has freely been given to me. By the Grace of God who desires that we know these things at His urging. For the Spirit has spoken and I have heard. And the Spirit has directed and I did write.

Therefore, wash in the blood of Jesus who was and is a Living Sacrifice for all the world that they all might be saved. For all do come short of the glory of God, it is His Holiness that we should desire to stand in. Yes, in His Footprints doth the Spirit of Truth require of us that we may be sealed now and forever more.

And I know I have been held and reserved for this cause that a few more may be brought in by the hearing of this gospel. That the Truth may be known before His Hand of Judgment is determined. It is by His Grace that I have received of it.

Therefore, I must stand and yet must I speak what has been written as it has been written. For I Fear the Lord above all and love Jesus who first loved us as well. I am accountable but am I not also strengthened?

I Do Stand Up because now I Can Stand Up! On this day may the Lord use me mightily as He has indeed prepared me to Stand before the congregation, That I might proclaim the things to come. Called to Reveal and to Forewarn, am I not also called to Cry? For by my revealing I must forewarn and by the silence I do cry.

Nevertheless, I stand Firm that the True God shall demonstrate Himself for the purpose of His Son that He will be Glorified in that Day. In the name of Jesus the Christ I do pray AMEN & AMEN!!

And finally giving credit where credit is due, I acknowledge to those a listing of books which have all aided me in my search for Truth. Though my learning has not been through an accredited school of ministry, let it be known that I needed the efforts of those who did dedicate themselves through the collegiate process. Let us take advantage of the reading material available and may the listing provided give you a running start. Thanks be to the writers...thanks indeed!

THE GOSPEL'S OBJECTIVE: "A PROPHETIC MINISTRY TO ASSURE US OF THE PURPOSE OF JESUS CHRIST."

THE FOUR FOUNDING PRINCIPLES

1. LET US KNOW THAT THE PERFECT WILL OF GOD IS THAT WE MIGHT HAVE A "SAVING" KNOWLEDGE IN JESUS CHRIST.

KEY FOUNDING SCRIPTURE: ST. JOHN 15.

2. LET US KNOW THAT THE PURPOSE AND THE POWER OF PROPHECY IS THAT WE MIGHT HAVE A "MORE SURE WORD" FROM GOD THE FATHER.

KEY FOUNDING SCRIPTURE: 2 PETER 1:16-21.

3. LET US DESIRE A FULLER MEASURE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT BY OFFERING A FULLER MEASURE OF REPENTANCE THAT WE MIGHT RECEIVE THE GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT AND MANIFEST THE FRUIT OF HIS PRESENCE.

KEY FOUNDING SCRIPTURE: ACTS 2:37-38...GAL 5:22-23.

4. MAY THE BLESSED HOPE OF THE CHURCH YET BE THE EARNEST EXPECTATION OF THE SECOND COMING OF JESUS CHRIST. “FOR WE WHICH ARE ALIVE AND REMAIN.”

KEY FOUNDING SCRIPTURE: 1 THESSALONIANS 4:13-18.

JUSTIFICATION FOR A “BACK TO BASICS” GOSPEL

I did not plan to be what I now have become. I simply had a curiosity about prophecy and thereby sought out a better understanding of Jesus Christ who I admittedly knew little about. That search began in November, 1989, after reading Hal Lindsey’s book titled, “The Late Great Planet Earth.” That book focused on fulfilled and unfulfilled prophecy. It highlighted the Nation of Israel and Christ kinship to that nation. So, I continued down this path studying a variety of books by a variety of writers on this subject.

After a period of saturation, I was suddenly directed by a Voice in my conscious which said commandingly, “Now write what you have come to know.” And so I immediately sat down and wrote my first letter dated May 16, 1990. And concluded with the seventh letter being written in July, 1991. Throughout this writing period, I was sharing the letters with anyone who had an ear to hear. I specifically sought out ministers for their critical review that they might assess their scriptural soundness and perhaps to benefit them and their congregation if such information was unknown to them. This was done first out of respect for their position in the Lord's House.

On this day in December, 1992, I have shared the first 3 letters with over 250 people of which approximately 35 were ministers (only approximately 70 people have been given all seven letters). While I am elated that not one minister has rebuked me for correction, I am saddened that neither have they supported the conclusion that the Letters do reveal. It is peculiar that the "Hope" that I have yet to deliver has caused many of the flock to be moved but not the shepherds. I am therefore disappointed with the ministers lack of response. Their silence (with the exception of a few) disturbs me concerning righteousness. For did not Jesus say, "Let him who is without sin cast the first stone"...and none did for they all left in silence! Silence has it's own Thunder!

It is for this reason that I have been moved to initiate a "Back To Basics" gospel. Truly, I do not desire my own church, but to preach to and in the churches that already are...an evangelist. There are more than enough churches with empty pews. Most people indicate to me that their churches are without true fellowship among one another. They are either too money oriented...too pride based...too pretentious or simply too unscriptural. Let therefore, this ministry seek to give answers to those who dare to have questions in these most perplexing times.

This ministry is a reactive one. I conclude that many have forgotten their First Love (Jesus).that they have little or no Hope in His Return... that without, hope one must ask then, "Where is their Faith?" Let me say that it is not so important that what I have written is right but what is most important is that we who are called Christians must always believe and yet desire the earnest expectation of Jesus Christ. It is the proof of our belief in the Resurrection and anything less than that shall prevent us from overcoming doubt which is the enemy to faith.

This ministry will seek to provide an avenue for those saints who simply desire to know what I feel the Holy Spirit has given us to know and me ultimately to write it down for the benefit of others. It is unique, for it is my desire to draw people into this ministry for the purpose of sending them back to their home churches to spread the Good News of this gospel. I have tried the front door of the minister's office, shall we now enter the back door by way of the congregation?

For the present, let us call this an "undercover" ministry having no physical location but with the exception of your body which is it not also known as the temple of God for those who worship The Christ. Scripture desires we all might prophesy but not that we must all be prophets, for it is the Lord that giveth! Let our main objective be this... To use Prophecy for the purpose of proving our Belief...making known our Hope...that in that Day we might be found worthy and blameless due to our Faith. And therefore desirable unto the Lord, we shall be "Caught up" by our Lord removing us from that great day of evil that is indeed approaching upon this generation. And what is the purpose of this evil...that Israel shall be Delivered from a world of unbelief and conclusively God shall demonstrate Himself and the Glory that is in His Son the Christ...and thus... Truth shall be Revealed and Provened!!

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

After a period of saturation in the study of God's prophetic word, I experienced a baptism of the Holy Spirit. It was unknown to me at the time what I was going through but a calling and a commission by God to write what I have come to know for the benefit of the Church was surging constantly within me...to tell the people. Prophecy, as in days past, is alive and well and moving before our eyes but the multitude is failing to see what we ought to be able to see. In other words, we see with our eyes but we don't see with our mind. God touched me to reveal the prophetic word as a result of my intense desire to want to know the reality of Him in preparation of Christ return. This is my first effort at writing and it came because of a born again experience. It's real...read the book and see it in action.
